GUNNING FOR HIM.

Government Is After Harriman.

Officials Are Loath to Afford Chance for His Immunity Bath.

Evidence Is Thought to Warrant Indictment of Railroad Operator.

Civil Suit to Set Aside the Merger Is Also Thought to Be Possible.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Criminal prosecution of Edward H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads, by the Federal government for violation of the interstate commerce law in securing control of parallel lines between San Francisco and New York will in all probability be brought by the government.

It has been decided not to request Harriman to appear before any government official or tribunal to give testimony which would result in giving him an "immunity bath."

The government is in earnest in its fight on the Harriman roads and it now believes it has enough evidence to secure the indictment and conviction of Harriman for violating the anti-trust law.

It is not the purpose of the government to give Harriman an opportunity to escape punishment for violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

While the government officials have become exceedingly wary in transactions of this character, they do not propose to permit any one who has violated the law to escape punishment if it can be prevented.

Notwithstanding this decision, the testimony of Harriman may be called for so as to make it possible to secure a civil suit against his railroad system for the dissolution of the merger.

TO PARALLEL HILL LINES.

OR ELSE DOUBLE-TRACK ROAD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Should Hill fail in his efforts to increase the capitalization of the GreatNorthern sufficiently to enable him to make it a double track system, throughout its entire length, it is reported that he will get around the difficulty by organizing a new company and building another transcontinental line.

This would be a considerably more expensive operation than merely double tracking the existing road, but the necessary money does not count for much with Hill in carrying out his purposes.

The first step in the construction of such a new road probably would be the building of a line from St. Paul to the western end of North Dakota, and this would serve to relieve congestion on the Great Northern, where it is more severely felt.

Most of the trouble at present is between Grand Forks on Red River to Minot. A new line from Fargo to Minot would end this.

PARENTAL LOVE TRIUMPHS.

Child Brings Father and Mother to Amiable Terms During Divorce Case.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While attorneys were arguing before Judge Honore today in contempt proceedings growing out of the failure to pay $1690 alimony, David MacKenzie, a Nevada mine owner, sat near his wife, Grace MacKenzie, and their son Philip, 8 years old, and talked with the boy for two hours. In that time the defendant gave the boy $121.10.

Twice husband and wife spoke directly to each other, and at other times the child was the medium of communication between them. For ten minutes MacKenzie talked to the boy without looking in the direction of his wife and then he took some bills from his pocket. He handed one for $100 to the child who took it in surprise. MacKenzie smiled and his son turning toward the mother showed her the bill. She nodded and then turned away. The defense of MacKenzie in seeking to escape payment of alimony is that the court is without jurisdiction as the defendant is a resident of Idaho.

TO SUPERVISE RAILROADS.

Nevada House Bill Urges Creation of Commission With Powers Over Corporations.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CARSON (Nev.) Feb. 13.—A bill introduced in the lower house of the Legislature today provides for a Railroad Commission to supervise railroads, telegraph, telephone, private car lines and all facilities of transportation. It provides maximum rates, requires all companies to report to the commission and makes the decision of the commission remain in effect until set aside by a final court of appeal.

It makes the maximum rate on ore, 1½ cents, and the maximum rate on other commodities, 8 cents. It adopts the western classification No. 41, now in force on all roads in the State, and makes the limit "on four times first class," of 20 cents per ton per mile.

SAVE FOREST OF BIG TREES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Senate Committee on Public Lands today authorized a favorable report on a bill to create a reserve to be known as Calaveras Big Tree National Forest. The bill authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to obtain title to the forest of big trees in California known as Sequoia Washingtonia.

BULLDOG CHEWS WOMAN TO PULP.

ONCE BEATEN OFF BY HUSBAND, ANIMAL AGAIN ATTACKS.

Mistress Punishes Canine for Disobedience and Brute Retaliates by Seeking Her Life—Terrible Injuries Sustained, Which Surgeons Say Will Probably End in Death.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Attacked by a ferocious bulldog which she had severely beaten early in the day and which she was feeding in the kitchen of her home tonight, Mrs. Lena Smith, residing at 228 South Bonsall street, sustained injuries which will probably cause her death.

The woman's screams were heard by her husband, James Smith, as he was returning from work shortly after 7 o'clock. Quickening his steps he burst into the house and saw his wife and the dog in an awful struggle. The animal's teeth were imbedded in the woman's neck and her clothing was dyed with blood.

Grasping a chair, Smith struck the dog a blow on the head, and seizing it before it could recover, threw it into an adjoining room and closed the door. The half-crazed husband then ran and summoned an ambulance.

He returned to the house with all possible haste and was horrified to find that the animal had again attacked his wife. The dog had gained entrance to the room from a small window of the kitchen and leaped upon the weakened woman as she was creeping to a chair.

With a poker the husband beat the dog off again and stopped the flow of blood from his wife's wounds with a table cover. At the Polyclinic Hospital it was found that the woman's neck and shoulders had been torn and both arms were chewed to a pulp.

Just before she became unconscious Mrs. Smith said: "I beat the dog for disobeying me and it was sullen all day. I felt sorry tonight and was giving it a good supper, when it attacked me."

BABY IS CAUSE OF HIS DIVORCE.

MRS. BASSETT NAMED IT FOR THE CO-RESPONDENT.

Justice Gould of Washington, Grants Husband Decree Separating Him from Daughter of Former Senator Rice—Minister Involved in Scandal—Wife Charges Cruelty.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Justice Gould today granted a decree of divorce to Charles G. Bassett in his suit against Mrs. Fanny Rice Bassett; on the ground of infidelity. Mrs. Bassett, who is a daughter of former Senator Rice of Arkansas, has filed a counter-suit at Omaha, charging cruelty.

Mrs. Bassett's social position in Washington won for her the distinction of being called the "chaperone of the House of Representatives."

Rev. Dr. E. Lawrence Hunt, named as co-respondent in the proceedings, an assistant pastor of the church that Mrs. Bassett attended, urged her, it is said, to use her influence for him that he might be appointed chaplain of the Senate.

Mrs. Bassett entered earnestly into the campaign, and the gossips soon got busy.

The interest centered principally about the birth of a child, named by the mother Lawrence Hunt Bassett, and, it is alleged by the husband, born March 12, 1905, ten months after Bassett left his wife to engage in field work for the Geological Survey.

VATICAN LIKES TERMS.

Is Ready to Accept Church Leases If Wording Is Not Harsh to Catholics.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Complete understanding between the French government and the Vatican on leasing the churches for eighteen years is a question of only a few days or even hours according to officials of the ministry of public instruction.

The Vatican is willing to accept Briands condition that the new lease must be made between the Mayor of each commune and the cure whenever the latter is changed but still holds that the minister of public instruction must furnish such phrasing for this condition as "will not wound the susceptibilities of Catholics." Briand says confidentially that he has found such a formula but he has not yet divulged it.

ESPEE IS VICTOR.

Consolidation Quest Hopeless.

San Pedro-Los Angeles Merger Defeated by Railroad Interests.

Commissioners Face an Invincible Stone Wall in the Senate.

Savage Still Obdurate, and Bill Returns to Committee for Final Rest.

BY B. FRANK GREAVES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One day in the Senate was enough to convince the Consolidation Commissioners from Los Angeles that their mission is hopeless. They will return home tomorrow with the report that it is useless to look for the passage of the bill that would permit Los Angeles and San Pedro to consolidate.

The onus rests on the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, which is behind the Savage-Leavitt combination in the Senate, antagonistic from the start. There is no doubt now, and there has been little at any time, that the Espee opposes any move by which the city of Los Angeles might control the harbor of San Pedro.

The railroad company and its political agents and servants, including Senators Savage and Leavitt, are responsible for the defeat of this earnest effort to consolidate the two cities.

The delegation of lobbyists from Los Angeles, including Motley H. Flint, John G. Mott, E. P. Johnson, Jr., and Oscar C. Mueller, arrived this morning, and with Sidney A. Butler, president of the Consolidation Commission, began a careful investigation into the situation.

STONE WALL IN SENATE.

It took but a short time to convince them that they were confronted by a stone wall in the Senate. They could not batter it down with any arguments or promises, although they did succeed in obtaining from Senator Savage some concessions that concede everything but the main point at issue.

Savage was willing to withdraw some of his amendments to the Consolidation Bill. He would grant that 30 per cent. of the electors concerned might have an election called; that another election might be held within two years, and that each municipality should bear its portion of the expenses.

But he insisted that two-thirds of the vote should be in the affirmative to carry the election. He would not give in on this.

EFFORTS UNAVAILING.

The Los Angeles committee worked all day with Savage, but they could gain nothing more from him, and tonight they are prepared to, go back with the report that any attempt to secure friendly legislation in the Senate is useless.

The bill has been referred back to the Senate Committee on Municipal Corporations, where it will be permitted to die.

It is certain that the measure could be put through the Assembly, but it would be only a waste of time, for Savage and Leavitt, acting under the orders of the Southern Pacific, and guided by their own selfish interests, would stand with ax in hand ready to smash it on its appearance in the upper house.

President Butler of the Consolidation Commission said tonight that he would recommend now that the consolidation project be proceeded with now under the existing law, taking the chance that the Supreme Court will uphold the regularity of the proceedings.

PULAJANES BURN TOWNS.

Six Constables Are Slain and Two American Teachers Are Missing.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MANILA, Feb. 13.—Pulujanes attacked and burned two towns in the province of Occidental Negros yesterday and killed six members of the constabulary. Two American teachers, W. K. Batchelder and Walter J. Ise, are reported to be missing.

No cause is known for the sudden uprising. Raids were made within a radius of ten miles and schools were first attacked and burned in both instances.

The province of Occidental Negros has been free from disturbance for four years.

It is believed that the raiders were mountaineers venting their hereditary enmity against the coast towns.

Count Lochwitzky Visits Mexico to Find Land for One Hundred Thousand Countrymen.

EL PASO (Tex.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the purpose of acquiring 50,000 acres of land in the State of Chihuahua, Mex., on which he intends to colonize 100,000 Russians, who are coming to the western continent to escape the persecutions and ill-treatment of their native country, Count A. M. Lochwitzsky of St. Petersburg left for Mexico this morning in company with Bishop Filipp Shubin and Bishop Nicholas Olgoltroff, who are at the head of the Russian church in Los Angeles, and who are helping Count Lochwitzky in the movement.

GAUNTLET SOON FOR FAIR BILL.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE IS TO PASS ON IT.

San Francisco Members Hope to Secure Three Million Dollars for World's Fair Exposition in Their City Six Years Hence—Opposition on Ground of Urgent Need for Other Purposes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although it is up for final passage in the Senate, the bill appropriating $3,000,000 for a world's fair in San Francisco in 1913 has yet to run the gauntlet of the Ways and Means Committee of the Assembly. The prediction is made that this committee will deny any part of the appropriation at this time.

Following the visit of a large delegation from San Francisco last Saturday, the Finance Committee of the Senate recommended that the appropriation be made as provided in the bill, at the rate of $500,000 a year for six years. No opposition was offered to the measure on second reading in the Senate today. That bill is expected to pass it tomorrow or Friday, whereupon it will go to the Ways and Means Committee.

Members of the Ways and Means Committee say they do not see how a million dollars can be taken from the State treasury for this purpose in the next two years without cutting off many appropriations absolutely needed.

Every general appropriation bill is being cut to the bone to relieve the strain on the treasury caused by the destruction of numerous State buildings in the April disaster. The committee for more than two weeks has examined State officers as to their absolute needs for the next two years. It even has haggled over increases of $100 in the budget of two years ago.

Agnews Insane Asylum must be rebuilt at an estimated cost of $800,000. The San José Normal School, also wrecked in April, must be rebuilt, although the committee has sliced $100,000 from the $350,000 appropriation requested. Other needed expenditures have been denied absolutely.

But it may be that the World's Fair Bill will be brought out of the Ways and Means Committee onto the floor of the Assembly and there forced through. The San Francisco delegation of sixteen members in the lower house is united for the fair, and they may be able to rally enough support to carry the measure. They even may get support from the Senate, which, through the adoption of obstructionist tactics toward Assembly measures, might force the lower house to pass the bill.

Even then, there is a possibility that Gov. Gillet will veto the fair bill. He already has expressed himself strongly for economy. His first concern is for the State institutions that actually are suffering for appropriations.

Senator Rolley of Humboldt county introduced a bill this mornnig calling for an appropriation of $100,000 for the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle in 1909. This is supposed to be an administration measure, as Gov. Gillett some time ago announced his friendliness to the project because of the part Seattle took in the Midwinter Exposition in San Francisco in 1894.

There still is some hope that the Ways and Means Committee may be prevailed upon to report favorably on the Leads bill, which calls for an appropriation of $60,000 for a California exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition at Norfolk, Va., this year.

RECOVER VICTIMS' BODIES.

SOUTH OMAHA, Feb. 13.—The bodies of Dan McCrone, a veterinary surgeon, his wife and daughter, and Miss Bell, who were drowned in the flood at Columbus yesterday, have been recovered. Today all the live stock in the Union Pacific yards at Columbus was drowned. All trains are held up and telephone and telegraph wires are down. Dynamite is being used in the Loup River by the Union Pacific Railroad, which is doing its utmost to relieve the situation and aid the sufferers.

WOMEN SUFFRAGISTS ABUSE THE COMMONS.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The woman suffragists, whose leaders have determined not to desist in their violent agitation until Parliament has granted their demands, appear likely to give the authorities considerable trouble. They made today a more determined and better organized demonstration than ever before, in the course of which more than sixty women were arrested. It was nearly midnight before they all secured bail.

From an early hour this afternoon until 10 o'clock tonight a large force of police had their hands full in defending the precincts of Parliament from suffragists' raids. Every entrance to the House of Commons was guarded by detachments of policemen, while other officers of the law were engaged in clearing the adjacent streets, and a body of fifty constables was kept in reserve for emergency.

As the House was about to adjourn tonight Claude George Ray, a membre called attention to the disturbances, and protested against using the House of Parliament as a fortress to be filled with police to protect the members against women.

Home Secretary Gladstone replied to Ray saying he had little knowledge of what was going on outside, but that the measures employed were for the general convenience of the members and he was sure no unnecessary violence had been used.

Miss Annie Kenny, one of the leaders who has been imprisoned three times, declares that if woman suffrage is not granted during this session, she will march one thousand women cotton mill operatives from the north, and will confront the ministers on the floor of the House of Commons.

Conference With Jerome May Shed Light on Career of Thaw's Wife.

Mrs. Holman Prepared to Refute Her Story—Juror's Wife Ill.

Possibility of Mistrial Now Apparent — Thaw Is Despondent.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Through one of his assistants, Dist.-Atty. Jerome has had a most important conference with the Holmans of Pittsburgh, regarding the testimony given on the stand by Mrs. Harry Thaw, which reflected seriously and, the Holmans say, untruthfully, on Mrs. Holman, mother of the young woman.

The conference, which was held at Cambridge Springs, 150 miles north of Pittsburgh, is said to have resulted in giving the New York District Attorney information which will controvert the statements made by Mrs. Harry Thaw. The conference lasted twenty-four hours.

Howard Nesbit, who is now in New York, is thought to have suggested the conference to the District Attorney.

It was stated by a close friend of the family here today that Dist.-Atty. Jerome has a long sworn statement from Mrs. Holman made in Jersey City some weeks ago, when Mrs. Holman went there to meet, by appointment, a man named Hartnet, former secretary of Stanford White.

Many things were left out of this statement because, according to friends of the woman, positive assurance had been given Mrs. Holman, who, she thought, spoke for her daughter, that she would not lay bare the story of her life, real or fancied.

Now that Mrs. Harry K. Thaw has chosen to testify, Mrs. Holman, who tells her friends she has suffered at the hands of her daughter for years, has placed all she knows at the disposal of Jerome, and may go to New York herself to testify in rebuttal.

MRS. BOLTON ILL.

Further expert testimony occupied the session of the Thaw trial today. Mrs. Bolton, wife of juror No. 11, is suffering from double pneumonia, and is so seriously ill, in the opinion of the attending physician, as to have required the presence of her husband today. Consequently the case was adjourned for the morning, while Bolton, accompanied by a court officer, went to his home. He returned for the afternoon session.

As Mrs. Bolton is past middle age, and as the death rate from the pneumonia is above 60 per cent. among elderly people, there is grave fear of an interruption of the trial, should Mrs. Bolton die, adjournment will probably be taken until after the funeral.

Restlessly moving in his seat, Harry Thaw chafed and gloomed over the delay. Throughout the day he exhibited a peculiar staring aspect of the eyes, which is a sure sign of a strain with him. Toward the close of the afternoon session, he leaned far over the table for minutes at a time, talking vehemently to McPike. Once when Dist.-Atty. Jerome made an unguarded admission, regarding the matter of Thaw's "brain explosion," and Lawyer Delmas took advantage of it, the defendant laughed noiselessly.

Again Dr. Britton D. Evans, the alienist, was on the stand. He gave the details of the physical examination upon which he based his opinion that Harry Thaw was of unsound mind.

INSANITY SYMPTOMS.

Summed up, they seemed, to the lay mind, surprisingly inadequate. A peculiarly deep indentation at the back of the head, slightly exaggerated reflexes, somewhat unusual sensitiveness to tickling on the bottom of the feet, and a markedly irregular heart action, indicating derangement of the sympathetic nervous system, were the only abnormal physical symptoms. There was no evidence of drug habit, the doctor said.

In the course of his testimony, he stopped and spoke to the judge, who thereupon announced that as certain details of the examination would be unpleasant he would give any ladies present an opportunity to withdraw. Thereupon all the newspaper women, who were the only representatives of their sex in court, left the room until Dr. Evans's testimony was concluded.

In asking for an adjournment for a conference over Harry Thaw's will, Jerome said:

"It may be that the contention of the people is mistaken and that this document, which is very long, should be admitted in whole or in part. In any case, it can be examined out of court."

"I may also state that Drs. Deemer and Bingaman have agreed to hold over their probable testimony with me, and this may accelerate matters. In the absence of any understanding with them, it would be my duty to interpose technical objections and thus keep out testimony which may include proper and necessary matters that the court should know."

Delmas acquiesced, and court ad-

AGREEMENT IS IN SIGHT.

Japanese Controversy Now in Hands of Congress.

Law to Keep Coolies from Mainland Is Framed.

Californians Stickle for Separate Schools.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rapid progress toward the settlement of the differences between the United States and Japan and between the President and the San Francisco school authorities was made today. The proposed solution is in form of an amendment to the immigration bill pending in Congress, and the execution of an agreement depends, of course, on the favorable action of Congress. The amendment in question was approved by Secretary Root and accepted by the confreres on the immigration bill, who reported the bill to the two houses. This amendment reads:

TEXT OF BILL.

"That whenever the President shall be satisfied that the passports issued by any foreign government to its citizens to go to any country other than the United States or to any insular possession of the United States, or to the canal zone, are being used for the purpose of enabling the holders to come to the continental territory of the United States, to the detriment of labor conditions therein, the President may refuse to permit such citizens of the country issuing such passports to enter the continental territory of the United States from such other country or from such insular possessions, or from the canal zone."

SUSPENDS ACTION.

The conference report went over until tomorrow in both houses. It is understood that opposition to the amendment is developing in the Senate, but the Republican leaders are confident that it will be agreed to. The effect of the amendment is to exclude from California all Japanese who are pouring in from Hawaii.

The Japanese government issues passports to Japanese going to Hawaii, but it does not issue passports to its citizens coming direct to the mainland. If the President refuses to permit Japanese from Hawaii to enter California, exclusion is an accomplished fact, so far as the mainland is concerned.

The California Senators are well pleased with the amendment and believe it is all that could reasonably be demanded at this time. The Californians in the House were disposed at first to oppose the amendment on the ground that it placed everything in the hands of the President, and they were inclined to think that the Coast would not credit him with any enthusiasm in enforcing exclusion, as shown by his pro-Japanese message.

After they had studied the amendment further, however, they agreed that it was ample to prevent the influx of Japanese to California, and they will do their best to convince their constituents that the President can be trusted to exercise his discretion in their interest.

EFFECTIVE EXCLUSION.

Mayor Schmitz and the San Francisco School Board had a conference with the President and the Secretary of State this afternoon. The amendment was discussed in all its phases. The San Franciscans were convinced that it would be effective in excluding coolies coming from Hawaii. The school controversy was talked over, without reaching a definite agreement. The San Francisco people hope to obtain the acquiescence of Japan in a plan to establish a separate Japanese school which shall be located to suit the convenience of the pupils, and be specially equipped for the teaching of English.

This arrangement is hinted at in a statement by Mayor Schmitz, given out tonight. He said:

"The proposed amendment to the immigration bill meets with our approval in so far as the question of excluding coolie labor is concerned. It is a step in the right direction, but the school question has not been settled, and I do not want it understood that we have accepted the immigration amendment as the price of receding in the school controversy. I hope that we will reach an agreement that will be satisfactory, and yet will provide for separate schools.

"One thing is certain, we will never agree to admit adult Japanese into white schools. I believe an agreement will be reached Friday. We are willing to establish a school wherever it would be convenient to Japanese and then provide special educational advantages."

The San Francisco people will see the President again Friday, by which time Congress may have acted on the exclusion amendment. Communications are being exchanged by Secretary Root with the Japanese government through Ambassador White on the proposal to establish a separate school in San Francisco.

AGREEMENT IS IN SIGHT.

Members of the California Congressional delegation are certain that the end of the Japanese question is in sight, if Congress will agree to the Root amendment.

They do not believe that Mayor Schmitz and the School Board will hold out long on the school question if exclusion is obtained. If Japan should reject the proposition to establish a separate school, the San Francisco authorities would be forced by public sentiment to rescind their segregation resolution, is the opinion of the Coast Congressmen.

"Just let Congress go ahead and give us this exclusion amendment," said one of the California delegation, "and we will guarantee that the Japanese question will not bother anybody any longer."

Some of the Pacific Coast Representatives express the opinion that the Root amendment is a temporary expedient which must be followed by an exclusion treaty and an act of Congress in order to prevent the Japanese question from coming up again. But they agree that if the influx from Hawaii is stopped, negotiations for a treaty may be carried on at leisure and without fear of friction with Japan. Ultimately, they say, the Japanese must be excluded not only from the mainland, but from Hawaii. This, however, is a matter of future negotiation and need not bother the Pacific Coast, if the Root amendment is enacted and the present influx is stopped.

TO HARMONIZE SITUATION.

JOINT MEETING IS PLANNED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An attempt is being made late tonight to have a meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock between the California Congressional delegation and Mayor Schmitz and his party. It is understood the idea of the meeting is to provide a unanimous agreement of the Californians before any agreement is made with the President.

ASKS PEERS TO RESIGN TITLES.

JAPANESE NOBLE MAKES PLEA TO HIS OWN ORDER.

He Urges That Distinct Class Standing Between Emperor and People Hinders Progress and on Patriotic Grounds He Demands Voluntary Surrender of Privileges.

TOKIO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Count Taisuke Itagaki has addressed a circular to the nobility, in which he proposes the abolition of the peerage. He says the presence of a distinct class between the imperial house and the people is injurious to the progress of the nation. The Count thinks the existing peers should enjoy their titles for one generation and then the peerage should cease to exist.

He, therefore, advises the peers to return their titles to the Emperor just as the old feudal barons or daimios relinquished their prerogatives at the time of the abolition of feudalism in 1871. This radical suggestion coming from a man of Count Itagaki's high standing causes great excitement and wonder.

WOMEN LEFT TO DIE AS MEN SEEK SAFETY.

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Feb. 13.—Terrible tales of suffering were brought here tonight by some of the survivors from the steamer Larchmont, which went to the bottom in Block Island Sound Monday night, and some of the passengers assert that in the hour of peril helpless women were thrust aside by men who cared only for their own safety.

The charge of cowardice was made by Fred Heirgesell, an eighteen-year-old lad of Brooklyn, N. Y. He said that not only were women left to their fate, but that Capt. McVey left the sinking ship in the very first lifeboat; that some of the ship's crew filled the boats to the exclusion of the passengers, and that at least one boat was without oars when it was put over the side.

Louis McFarland, a colored waiter on the Larchmont, said when he reached the captain's boat that he found Capt. McVey there.

The captain ordered that the boat be swung out, calling to the passengers at the same time to step in. The passengers, McFarland said, seemed afraid to do so; and, as the ship was going down, Capt. McVey ordered the boat to be lowered. When it reached the water, however, a rope fastened to the ringbolt and attached to the davit above became caught, and those in the boat were in danger of being dragged down with the steamer when Boatswain Andrew Tobsen, who was on the deck, saved their lives by cutting the rope.

Heirgesell's statement was not confirmed by any other survivor, but he insists he is right.

President Dunbaugh tonight said:

"The schooner was responsible for the collision. In view of the horrible condition which prevailed immediately after the accident, I am satisfied that the men did all in their power to meet the situation as conscientious and honorable men. It appears from my investigation that the schooner luffed right into the Larchmont, and caused the accident.

Following is a list of the Larchmont survivors so far as known up to a late hour:

Passengers: Harris Feldman and wife, New York; Miss Sadie B. Gallup, Worcester, Mass.; Samuel L. Combe, Manchester, N. H.; Oliver Janvier, Providence; David D. Fox, Bridgeton, N. J.; James Flood, New York; Fred Heirgesell, Brooklyn; Antonio Riesukiewitz, Central Falls, R. I.; T. R. Trafasorgich, Central Falls, R. I.; Abraham Miscefor, Providence R. I.

Officers and crew: Capt. George W. McVey, Providence; Purser Oscar A. Young, Providence, R. I.; Quartermaster James Stables, Brookville, Me.; James Vann, New York; Walter Louis MacFarland, Wellington, N. C.; Walter Richard Hall, Providence; Fireman Martes Liebert, New York; Fireman James Fallin, Providence.

Following is a list of identified bodies up to 10 p.m.:

—— Brown, negro waiter, Providence; James Carroll, freight clerk, Providence; Antonio Courti, Boston; Harry Eckels, Block Island; Fred Ellsbree, Providence; Nathan Flood, son of James Flood (saved,) New York; Moses Fountains, waiter, residence unknown; Casper Hess, first assistant engineer, Albany, N. Y.; George James, chef, residence unknown; Mrs. J. G. Jenson, Providence; Mrs. Koren Morijan, Olneyville, R. I.; Capt. Ellen Lambert, Salvation Army, Cambridge, Mass.; Edward Logan, second assistant engineer, Providence; Erik Nelson, assistant engineer, Providence; E. B. Pitts, Providence; George A. Smith, watchman, Olneyville, R. I.; John J. Scott, Petersburgh, Va.; Dennis Thibeau, Providence; Jacob Adams, watchman, Paterson, N. J.; stewardess, name unknown.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ANTWERP, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When the Swedish steamship Olof Wijk, from Gottenburg to this port, arrived at the quarantine station today, it was discovered that four first-class passengers had been suffocated in their staterooms by fumes escaping from a quantity of sulphur matches in the hold directly beneath their staterooms.

The victims were a Frenchman, two Swedes and a Russian, the chief of a band of terrorists, who had escaped from Russia and gone to Sweden and was ordered thence by the police. He was on his way to join other refugees in Paris.

LAKE CHARLES (La.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. G. Desaul, news vender on a Southern Pacific train, snatched a purse from Miss Cary Veach of Louisville, while she slept. S. C. Brandt captured Desaul, with the help of Conductor George Atkinson. He confessed the theft and was taken from the train here by Brandt and pleaded guilty before District Judge Miller and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

Desaul committed the crime, was caught, jailed, and pleaded and was sentenced in less than five hours. He belongs to a prominent New Orleans family and is a nephew of a corporation judge. He has a young wife and a six months' old baby, and is about 21 years old.

Miss Veach and her friend, Miss Huismeier of Louisville, were on their way to Los Angeles to bring back the latter's sick brother. The girl's purse contained money and a round-trip ticket.

LIGHT-KEEPER ACCUSED.

CLAIM HE LOOTED WRECK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Officers of the Inland Navigation Company have asked the prosecuting attorney of Port Angeles to prosecute the light-keeper at Clallam light station on the charge of theft, the allegation being that he looted the wrecked steamer Alice Gertrude, removing brasses, blankets, linen and other property, which the crew of the steamer Rapid Transit claim to have seen about the premises of the light station.

The Rapid Transit crew, while engaged in dismantling the Alice Gertrude, learned also that Indians stole everything they could get away with.

BAPTIST FUNDS MISSING.

SIZE OF DEFALCATION GROWS.

NEW BRITAIN (Ct.) Feb. 13.—That William F. Walker, the missing treasurer of the Savings Bank of New Britain, who is alleged to be responsible for a shortage at that institution, made big inroads into the $75,000 fund of the Connecticut Baptist convention, of which he was also treasurer, was made known today at Hartford as the result of a special audit of a tentative report of his accounts instituted a week ago. President Thompson, of the society, today said that bonds worth $7000 placed in Walker's care are missing.

According to President Corbin of the Savings Bank of New Britain, the actual shortage in Walker's account is $65,000. The run on the bank, which began Monday, continued today and at 11:30 o'clock in the morning the bank stopped payment, Acting Treasurer Oldershaw stating that to protect the interests of the bank it was necessary to invoke the ninety-day clause which suspends payments without notice for that period.

Mayor George M. Landers has sent a letter to Gov. Woodruff asking that Bank Commissioner Kendall be removed from office on the ground of neglect of duty and incompetency. He points out in his letter that when Kendall began an examination of the affairs of the bank last Thursday, Treasurer Walker, on a plea of illness, left the bank and Commissioner Kendall did not continue his work, but returned home to await Walker's convenience, knowing at the time that the latter did not return home that day.

CALLS TALES ABSURD.

Stories That Harry Lehr Misbehaved at Court Functions Is Denied by Ambassador Tower.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Feb. 13.—Various newspapers of Berlin have been publishing unpleasant articles about Harry S. Lehr, of New York and what is said to have been his misbehavior at the court ball given a fortnight ago. What began as a pleasantry over his having worn a cutaway coat and a black white check shirt at an afternoon reception given by Princess Eitel Fredericks's ladies of honor became a regular campaign, so every day for a week brought fresh stories concerning him. One that he had made a scene over a question of precedence of his wife; another that he had worn trousers turned up at the bottom in the presence of the Emperor, and other ridiculous things.

From this the discussion passed to general criticism of Americans and of the Embassy. It is affirmed by persons who were present at the court ball that not one of the stories has the least foundation. Ambassador Tower says:

"The conduct of Mr. Lehr during his visit to Berlin was marked throughout by the same decorum as that of any other American gentleman and was not open in any respect to adverse criticism."

ENTOMBED IN CAVE-IN.

Earth Collapses on Well-Digger and He Talks to Rescuers Through Iron Tube.

SOUTH OMAHA (Neb.) Feb. 13.—After being imprisoned at the bottom of a forty-foot well, covered with tons of earth, for twenty-four hours, and receiving his air supply through an iron well pipe, Herman Frankhoidt, a well digger, was yesterday dug out and found uninjured.

Frankhoidt was digging a well near South Omaha, Monday morning, when the well in which he was working caved in. Friends started a search for him Tuesday morning when his wife reported that he had not returned home. The chase led to the well where tapping was heard on the gas pipe iron ladder which Frankhoidt had been using and a conversation was held by the rescuers with the entombed man through the hollow tube.

Frankhoidt was protected when the cave-in occurred by the iron ladder through which a supply of fresh air reached him. He kept up a continual tapping on the ladder, hoping some one would hear him. After eight hours' digging, the man was released.

PARIS, Feb. 13.—The death of Rodolph Julian, the noted art teacher, is announced. He was 66 years of age. Many foreigners, especially Americans, attended Julian's school.

"LINER" UPON "LINER"

Wonders Do Not Cease.

THERE is no better index to the popularity of a newspaper than the number of classified advertisements it prints. These small advertisements reflect the wants and aims of the people, the whole people. Materialistically speaking, the classified "ad" is the "Give us this day our daily bread" of the masses.

No newspaper in the world prints such a volume of these little "ads," daily and Sunday, as does the Los Angeles Times. And their number in The Times has never increased so rapidly as in the past three years while imitators have been trying so hard and so unsuccessfully to get the business.

Below is a summary of the number of columns of these classified "liners" published in The Times during the past five years:

For the year 1902	9,127 columns
For the year 1903	11,227 columns
For the year 1904	12,734 columns
For the year 1905	16,359 columns
For the year 1906	20,001 columns

It will be noted that in these five years the amount of this advertising in The Times has more than doubled. During the past year the number of its columns of these advertisements increased 3642 over that of the year previous.

Last Sunday The Times contained 214 columns of "liners," the largest number in its history.

One very good reason why The Times continues to leave its rivals for this business far out of sight is that advertisers and readers have found out that all classified "ads" in The Times are genuine and not make-believe announcements inserted for the sake of a false showing. If one of these advertisements in The Times is answered a real person with a real purpose, and not a dummy, is found at the other end of it. Many have been deceived by answering "liners" in other papers and finding them bogus. The Times "liner" advertisements are inserted in good faith by people who invariably pay for them and who mean business. Such "ads" get results. Often one little "ad" in The Times brings 200 answers in one day.

H...RISON SHOWS WEAKNESS.

Mayor Dunne and Carter H. Harrison today clashed in a test of strength, and the apparent coldness with which the former Mayor was greeted seemed to sound the knell of his Mayoralty aspirations. But eleven of the thirty-six Democratic Aldermen and nineteen of the Seventh Ward committeemen appeared at the Harrison headquarters to greet the former chief executive of the city and wish him well. After Harrison had had a full day in which to gain new recruits, the Mayor marshalled his forces at the Sherman House, where more than one hundred and twenty-five Aldermen, committeemen and ward officers representing twenty-nine wards, repeated their assurances of support.

MARRIAGE ENDS ROMANCE.

The story of romance in which "Will" J. Davis, Jr., son of W. J. Davis, theatrical magnate, played the part of hero, was unfolded today when it was revealed that Davis, Jr., and Miss Florence Turtle were quietly married at Pensacola, Fla., last Saturday, despite the objections which had been made by the young man's father. Davis and Miss Turtle, who is the daughter of Capt. Turtle of the United States Army, met two years ago at Pensacola, where Davis had gone to recuperate from a long illness.

AMERICAN IS FRENCH MAYOR.

That Daumas Micolas, 63 years old, and Mayor of Belford, France, is an American citizen was the amazing revelation in a letter received today by Mayor Dunne from the executive of the French town. Mayor Micolas says he was born in Chicago and still retains his American citizenship. He requests that citizenship papers be forwarded for his protection during contemplated travels.

MANY WIVES, NO CRIME.

CLEVELAND (O.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Under our present marriage laws a man may have a wife in each of half a dozen different States and yet violate no law of the land and be absolutely immune from punishment." This was the startling declaration made by Judge Robert Taylor of the Federal Court in an address before the Men's League of Memorial Church on the need of Federal supervision of marriage and divorce. "To show that what I say is not theory let me cite the case of a man who has had three wives and has broken no laws. He was married first in New York. Tiring of his wife, he went into Pennsylvania, secured a divorce under the laws of the State and married again. New York, however, does not recognize the Pennsylvania divorce and he was still the husband of wife No. 1. Later he went to California, secured a California divorce, from wife No. 2, but he was still no less the husband of the women in New York and Pennsylvania when he was in these States. He died and three widows—not ex-wives, but widows—took dower from his estate. So long as he did not take one wife into the State while another resided he had lived within the law."

AFFIDAVITS SENSATIONAL.

ASHEVILLE (N. C.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Highly sensational affidavits by Gilland Stikeleather, who is being sued by Herbert Beecher Mills, multi-millionaire yachtsman of Detroit, were introduced in evidence today in the counter-divorce suit against Mrs. Mills. Stikeleather's claim that he was intoxicated when he signed the papers is disputed by President Ray of the Citizens' Bank. The affidavits made by Stikeleather state that he had often visited Mrs. Mills alone in her rooms and other places in the evenings when she was here last spring and often embraced her.

The affidavits were obtained by a detective who won Stikeleather's confidence.

Higgins World Oil Company Incorporates for $6,000,000—San Francisco, Headquarters.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Higgins World Oil Company, with a capital of $6,000,000, has been incorporated under the laws of Arizona.

The principal place of business will be in San Francisco with a branch office in Houston. Patille Higgins is the promoter of the corporation, which has for its announced object active competition with the Standard Oil in all lines in which the latter enters.

Capital from San Francisco, together with eastern and foreign interests, are involved in the movement. The company will commence business at once.

The British battleships Albemarle and Commonwealth, which were maneuvering off the coast of Portugal, were in collision February 11, and were so damaged that they were obliged to proceed to Gibraltar for repairs. No one was injured.

DEFENDS HERSELF.

journed at 4 o'clock. Juror Bolton received permission to return to his wife.

MISTRIAL POSSIBLE.

Juror Bolton this afternoon appeared distracted, apparently taking little interest in the proceedings.

If Mrs. Bolton's condition should continue so critical that her husband cannot be expected to give proper consideration to his duties as a juror, there may be an indefinite postponement, all the jurors, meanwhile, remaining locked up—or, possibly, a mistrial.

Dr. Britton D. Evans, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane at Morris Plains, N. J., gave the only testimony.

Dr. Evans concluded his direct examination, and Dist.-Atty. Jerome reserved the right to cross-examine the expert later.

Dr. John Deemar of Kittaning, Pa., was recalled just before adjournment and asked to state what he knew of the mental condition of John Ross, first cousin of Harry Thaw. Mr. Jerome objected to the question on the ground that the relationship was too remote to permit the drawing of deductions as to hereditary insanity. Both question and witness were withdrawn temporarily.

EVANS CALLED DOWN.

Dr. Evans said he felt it was extremely unfair to him as a physician to require him to separate his physical examinations of the defendant from the questions and answers as to his mental processes. He was interrupted by both Jerome and Delmas, and Justice Fitzgerald said:

"Will you kindly confine yourself to answering questions and not give expressions of opinion? There is some limitation, even to the province of an expert."

As the result of a conference between counsel just before adjournment, Jerome said Thaw's attorneys had turned the will of the defendant over to him for examination before it should again be formally offered in evidence. Counsel also agreed that Jerome should have the privilege of talking freely with Dr. Deemar and with Dr. Benjamin, the Thaw family physician, about certain testimony they have to offer.

Jerome said if he knew the nature of this testimony he might not have to occupy so much of the court's time and crowd the record with technical objections. In order to give him the opportunity to learn the nature of their testimony and to hasten the trial the early adjournment today was ordered.

Tomorrow Delmas will offer the will in evidence. If it is accepted, it will be read to the jury. If it is not accepted by consent of the District Attorney there is likely to be an extended argument. Following the disposition of the will Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will resume the stand.

SMALL FORTUNE FOR THAW.

"COKE TRUST" ROYALTIES.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—Benjamin Thaw, Alexander B. Thaw and T. C. Darsie, trustees of a certain fund established under the will of the late William Thaw, have filed an accounting for audit in the Orphan's Court, showing that Harry K. Thaw will receive $12,650 as his share from that portion of his father's estate embracing what is known as the "coke trust" for the period between July 19 and November 1, of last year. Alice Thaw, the Countess of Yarmouth, and the other children will receive a like amount from this source.

The "coke trust" includes all the coke and coal properties owned by the late William Thaw in the Connellsville coke region. Most of the properties have been leased on royalties and bring in large returns yearly.

BLOODY KNIFE FOUND IN BED.

DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED MAN ON SIDEWALK.

Has Cut in Neck and Concussion of Brain—Room-mate Says He Jumped Through Closed Window, but Police Find Glass Unbroken. Victim May Die.

Suffering from a cut in the neck and from concussion of the brain, B. Weaver was found, at 8:20 o'clock last night, lying unconscious on the sidewalk in front of the Altrue rooming-house, No. 363 Central avenue. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

According to the landlady of the rooming-house, Weaver and a man named W. A. Wilson applied for a room last night. She says she asked the men 75 cents for the room and they accepted it. The woman affirms that that is the last she saw of Weaver. He was found on the sidewalk by C. H. Brown and wife of No. 2216 Rogers street.

The police were summoned and the room which the two men had rented was broken open. Wilson, undressed, was sitting on the bed. He said that Weaver had robbed him and then jumped through the window. Wilson explained that Weaver sustained the wound on his neck by leaping through the glass. The room the men occupied is on the second floor.

Patrolmen arrested Wilson and searched the room. They found a blood-stained knife in the bedclothes. The window was not broken.

Investigation of Weaver's record was made last night by the police. They ascertained that he has served several jail sentences here and they think that he has been connected with room workers who have been operating here for several months.

Late last night the man partially recovered consciousness. He admitted that his name is Weaver, but later refused to say what his name is.

"I'm going straight to hell," he muttered, as he lay on his cot in the hospital. "I knew I'd come to the end of the rope pretty soon. Now I've got mine. I'm going straight to hell."

Unless other complications set in it is probable that Weaver will recover. Dr. Charles Bonynge said last night that the man has an even chance.

Wilson is in jail. In the event of Weaver's death a charge of murder will be lodged against him.

WIFE'S STORY OF ABUSE.

Tells Police That Husband Has Repeatedly Struck Her and Threatened Her Life.

"He turned me out on the street at midnight in my night clothes. He has threatened to kill me. He struck me in the face with his fist the day after we were married. He is a brute and I fear he will kill me."

This is the charge brought by Mrs. E. Vogelsang, the pretty nineteen-year-old wife of E. Vogelsang of No. 3548 Mettler street. The wife applied to the police last night for protection from her husband.

Three months ago, according to Mrs. Vogelsang, she was married in Chicago at the home of her parents. A light-hearted, happy bride she rejoiced that her handsome husband was to take her to Los Angeles to reside.

Her troubles began as soon as she became his wife, she says. She declares he loves another woman, who is at the bottom of the present trouble. One night, she declares, he became suddenly enraged and turned her out of doors in her night clothes.

According to Mrs. Vogelsang her husband is an Ascot tout. She declares he has neglected her to attend the races.

PARADE FOR ARBOR DAY.

Arrangements Completed for Celebration Festivities at Sycamore Grove.

Under the lead of J. A. Haskett, president of the Arbor Day Association, the arrangements for Arbor Day, February 15, have been completed. The association is vitally interested in the plan to make the Arroyo Seco a park with boulevards in it, and much of the celebration of the day has been planned to that end.

There will be a parade, which will form in Central Park at 1 o'clock. This will be headed by a squadron of police, with a brass band. Next will come the National Guard, and a company of Naval Reserves. More than one hundred school children will be in line, and the remainder of the parade will be composed of citizens in automobiles and carriages.

The parade will move through the city to Sycamore Grove, where the rest of the ceremonies will take place. There will be speeches tobching on the Arroyo Seco project by E. J. Harper, Ernest Braunton and Will A. Harris. Mr. Harper will represent his brother, Mayor Harper, who will be out of town.

CHARCOAL STOPS GAS ON YOUR STOMACH.

Trial Package Sent Free.

Charcoal, pure, simple charcoal, absorbs 100 times its own volume of gas. Where does the gas go to? It is just absorbed by the charcoal—the gas disappears and there is left a pure, fresh, sweet atmosphere, free from all impurities and germs.

That's what happens in your stomach when you take one or two of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful purifiers science has yet discovered.

You belch gas in company, sometimes, by accident, greatly to your own humiliation. That is because there is a great amount of gas being formed in your stomach by fermenting food. Your stomach is not digesting your food properly. Gas is inevitable. Whenever this happens, just take one or two of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges right after eating, and you will be surprised how quickly they will act. No more belchings; no more sour risings. Eat all you want and what you want, and then if there is any gas going to be formed, one of these wonderful little absorbers, a Stuart Charcoal Lozenge, will take care of all the gas.

And it will do more than that. Every particle of impurity in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away by the charcoal. No one seems to know why it does this, but it does, and does it wonderfully. You notice the difference in your appetite, general good feeling and in the purity of your blood right away.

You'll have no more bad taste in your mouth or bad breath, either from drinking, eating or smoking. Other people will notice your bad breath quicker than you will yourself. Make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, so when you talk to others you won't disgust them. Just one or two Stuart Charcoal Lozenges will make your breath sweet, and make you feel better all over for it. You can eat all the onions and odorous foods you want, and no one can tell the difference.

Besides, charcoal is the best laxative known. You can take a whole boxful and no harm will result. It is a wonderfully easy regulator.

And then, too, it filters your blood—every particle of poison or impurity in your blood is destroyed, and you begin to notice the difference in your face first thing—your clear complexion.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal and just a little honey is put in to make them palatable, but not too sweet.

They will work wonders in your stomach, and make you feel fine and fresh. Your blood and breath will be purified.

We want to prove all this to you, so just send for a free sample today. Then after you get it and use it, you will like them so well that you will go to your druggist and get a 25c box of these Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 54 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

WASHINGTON.

ASKS FEDERAL LAND RESERVE.

President Urges Government Control of Resources.

Wants Half Million to Run Down Grafters.

Says Fuel Deposits Should Be Protected.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The President today sent to Congress a long message calling attention to what he called "The urgent need of legislation affecting the different phases of the public land situation in the United States."

He advocates the conservation of coal and other fuel resources of lands still belonging to the government, saying that henceforth the nation should retain its title to its fuel resources; urges governmental control of the western public land pastures with a system of small grazing fees, etc., and asks for an appropriation of $500,000, immediately available, in addition to present estimates, to aid in detecting and preventing land frauds. He contends for a system of government leasing of its mineral lands and for treating these fuel lands as public utilities.

The President points out that it would have been better if some eastern coal lands had been left under government control and suggests provision in the West "against recurrence of the conditions we deplore in the East."

Citing 2300 cases of public land entries in four districts mentioned, the President says non-compliance with the law was found in over half of them and deliberate fraud in many cases.

The President says, in part:

"In our own Western States and Territories the scarcity of both water and forests has rendered necessary their preservation as public utilities and the preservation of the forests for the purpose of conserving both the waters and the timber supply has come to be recognized as the wise and proper policy of the Federal government.

"The quantity of high-grade mineral fuel in the West is relatively much smaller than that of the forests and the proper conservation of these fuels is a matter of far-reaching importance. This government should not now repeat the mistakes of the past.

"Let us not do what the next generation cannot undo. We have a right to the proper use of both the forests and the fuel during our lifetime, but we should not dispose of the birthright of our children.

"If this government sells our remaining fuel lands they pass out of its future control. If it now leases them we retain control, and a future Congress will be at liberty to decide whether it will continue or change this policy.

"Meanwhile the government can inaugurate a system which will encourage the separate and independent development of the surface lands for agricultural purposes and the extraction of the mineral fuels in such manner as will best meet the needs of the people and best facilitate the development of manufacturing industries.

"The necessity for care in the future management of these fuel supplies is further illustrated by the rapid rate at which the use of such fuels is increasing in the United States.

"This remarkable development and the certain continuity of these prodigious growths compels us to recast all estimates as to the life of our 'inexhaustible resources.' We can foresee the time when the eastern industries will be much more largely taxed for supplying foreign markets.

"It would surely be to the advantage of this country if some at least of the coal fields of the East, especially of the anthracite fields, had been left under the control of the government. Let us provide in the West against the recurrence of the conditions which we deplore in the East.

"Our experience with the Interstate Commerce Commission and anti-trust laws shows what is needed is not prevention of all combination but such supervision and control over corporations and combinations entering into them as will prevent the evils while giving to the public the advantages of the combination.

"I am exceedingly anxious to protect the interest of bonafide settlers and to prevent hardships being inflicted upon them. But surely we are working in their interest when we try to prevent the land which should be reserved for them and those like them from being taken possession of for speculation purpose or obtained in any fraudulent fashion."

The message concludes:

"From the standpoint of the public interest failure to prevent fraud of this kind is peculiarly serious because in so many cases the success of the fraudulent claimant means the prevention of the establishment of a home by some honest homesteader.

"The earnest wish of the administration is to discontinue the advertisement of fraud in connection with the public land system; but the only way to accomplish this is by putting a stop to this fraud itself."

COMPROMISE COAL BILL.

MODIFIES PRESIDENT'S IDEA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—A compromise of the Coal Land Bill was finally agreed upon today by the House Committee on Public Lands and recommended for favorable report. It falls far short of the programme President Roosevelt outlined for the withdrawal of all coal lands from entry and the leasing of such land, instead of selling it. In the bill agreed upon the coal land is reserved under all land entered under laws other than coal land laws, with the exception of homesteads the patents for which are issued without commutation. To encourage the development of coal land in the Rocky Mountain States the bill largely increases the amount of coal land which may be taken by one corporation. It provides that an association of four persons may be granted patents on 2560 acres of coal lands after having expended $10,000 for improvements. The bill permits an association of four persons to receive patents for 1280 acres after $5) has been expended in improvements.

CALIFORNIA BANK REPORT.

STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Comptroller of the Currency today issued a statement showing the condition of the 103 national banks of California outside of San Francisco and Los Angeles, at the close of business on January 26. The loans and discounts were, $45,039,144; gold coin reserves, $4,697,927, and the total resources, $87,766,603. The paid-up capital stock amounted to $9,166,300. The surplus fund, $3,925,333, and the individual deposits $57,446,549.

HERMANN'S TRIAL BEGINS.

Charges of Conspiracy in Land Grafting Cases Are Presented Against Oregon Member.

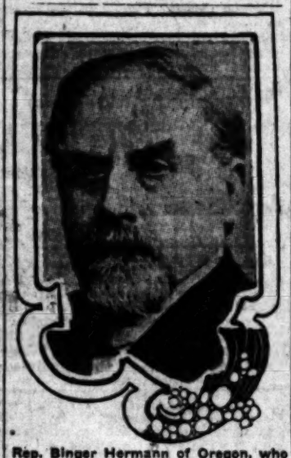
WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The trial of Representative Binger Hermann of Oregon, on charges of conspiracy in connection with land frauds was commenced today before Justice Stafford in the Criminal Court. The day opened with eleven men in the jury box, but the twelfth was secured without difficulty and the attorneys for the Federal government and the defendant made their statements to the jury.



Rep. Binger Hermann of Oregon, who is on trial at Washington on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government in land cases.

The first witness was Dr. Harry S. Rieger of Oregon, who was private secretary to Mr. Hermann when the latter was Commissioner of the General Land Office. He described the method of handling correspondence in that office.

The District Attorney offered to put in evidence several letters which he claimed were written by the defendant on official business and copied in the letter-press books and also stated that the books were official and related to land-fraud matters, tending to show fraudulent intent of the defendant in destroying the books.

Attorney Worthington, for the defense, objected because no intimation of the existence of such letters was given him in the bill of particulars.

Justice Stafford, partially upheld the contention of the defendant, and the District Attorney moved that he be allowed to amend the bill of particulars. Attorney Worthington again objected on the ground that it would be practically a new charge and twice put the defendant in jeopardy.

The court then adjourned until tomorrow morning, at which time it will hear the application of the District Attorney to amend and will then probably pass upon this vital point in the case.

KILL PLAN FOR SUPPLIES BASE.

HOUSE STRIKES OUT COALING STATION AMENDMENT.

Representative Smith's Rider to Naval Appropriation Bill for Fuel Docks at San Diego Meets Death in Committee—Will Introduce Measure in Senate.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There will be no coaling station erected at San Diego unless the Senate reverses the action which the House took in the matter today. Shortly after the House met, Representative Smith offered an amendment to the Naval Appropriation Bill appropriating $250,000 for this purpose.

He urged the great necessity for such a station, calling attention to the fact that the Secretary of the Navy was in favor of the plan, but that the committee had ignored his recommendation.

Representative Smith stated that in case of war it would be practically impossible for the ships of the American navy to get enough coal to make a cruise of even a few days if these ships were to depend upon the coal supply of the Pacific Coast.

Chairman Foss stated that it would cost between four and five hundred thousand dollars to erect such a station, and that there was no immediate necessity for it. His idea of the matter evidently was taken favorably by the House, for, on a rising vote, Smith's amendment was defeated by a vote of 41 to 13.

An effort will be made to have the amendment inserted in the bill when it reaches the Senate.

CONCLUSION NOT REACHED.

CANAL CONTRACT DISCUSSED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Another conference on awarding the Panama Canal contract was held at the White House today. J. B. McDonald and John Peirce, both of New York, associated with W. J. Oliver, in his bid for the work, were present and were consulted by the President regarding their experience in handling large contracts. No conclusion was announced.

Further conferences are expected in which the President and his advisers will consult with others associated with Oliver in his contract. Among these are P. J. Brennan of Washington and P. T. Walsh of Davenport, Iowa. The next conference, it was announced, will take place Tuesday.

AGRICULTURAL BILL.

CARRIES TOTAL OF $8,302,190.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Agricultural Appropriation Bill was reported to the Senate today and notice was given by Senator Proctor that the bill will be called up for action tomorrow.

As reported from the Committee on Agriculture the bill carries an increase over that allowed by the House in the appropriations for the Agricultural Department proper of $184,180, and of $500,000 in the appropriation for the forestry service, bringing the total forestry appropriation up to $1,000,000, and the grand total of the bill to $8,302,190.

The principal items of increase outside of the forestry service are $35,000 for experiment stations, $25,000 for grain grading investigations; $30,000 for soil investigations, and $25,000 for experiments in animal feeding.

The appropriation for the maintenance of the forestry service is regarded by the committee in the light of a loan, as it is promised by the forestry officials that the money shall be refunded from the receipts of the Bureau.

The Tawney amendment providing that no salaries shall be paid to State employés in the administration of the pure food law was altered to provide that "any part of the appropriation used for compensation or expenses to any officer employed by any State, county or municipal government, shall be reported to Congress in detail."

The House appropriation of $238,000 for free seeds was not disturbed.

POSTAL RECEIPTS.

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Postal receipts at San Francisco during January were $147,261, against $161,253 during the same month last year, a decrease of $13,992. Receipts at Los Angeles last month were $90,876; an increase of $13,400 over January, 1906.

FIFTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

CLOSING SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—SENATE—The Senate today passed the bill giving the government the right to appeal to the Supreme Court for a construction of the constitutionality of any law involved in a criminal suit. This measure has been under consideration for several days, and was passed only after many amendments had been adopted at the suggestion of Senators who have criticised the publication of the bill.

It was explained that the amendments did not in any instance detract from the original purpose of the bill, but that they were intended to provide means whereby the government could get a ruling on the constitutionality of a criminal law by the Supreme Court with as little hardship on any particular defendant as was possible.

The District of Columbia Appropriation Bill, carrying nearly eleven million dollars, was passed after an hour's consideration.

The bill establishing an agricultural bank in the Philippines was taken up for consideration, but difficulty was encountered because the Philippine Tariff Bill which passed the House at the last session, was interposed as an amendment by Senator McCreary of Kentucky. No action resulted.

The conference report on the Immigration Bill was read, but action was deferred. This bill has been in conference since the last session of Congress, and the report is brought forward at this time to aid the administration in settling the Japanese-California school problem.

A message from President Roosevelt urging consideration of legislation affecting the public lands was read.

The first night session of the Senate during the present session was held to consider private pension bills.

HOUSE—Headway was made today by the House in its consideration of the Naval Appropriation Bill and more than half the bill was perfected.

President Roosevelt's public land message was read.

The appropriation for a steel floating drydock to cost not exceeding $1,400,000 was stricken out of the bill on a point of order which was made by Mann of Illinois.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Fills Indian Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Speaker Cannon today appointed Representative Dixon of Montana to a place on the Committee on Indian Affairs of the House, vice Curtis, resigned.

No Answer Coming.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—No reply is to be made by the Interstate Commerce Commission to the petition to the Great Northern Railroad Company for permission to suspend, and resume on one day's notice, tariffs covering temporary reduced one-way and round-trip rates. The law requires thirty days' notice of changes of rates and the commissioners say they see no reason why it should be regarded.

Bacon Dislikes Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The new treaty with the Dominican republic, which reached the Senate yesterday, was the subject of consideration by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations. Owing to Senator Bacon's opposition no progress was made toward securing a favorable report. Bacon finds the new treaty objectionable on the same ground as the old because he considers interposition in Dominican affairs unwarranted.

Burlington Keeps Mail.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—It is announced at the Postoffice Department that transcontinental mail will continue to be forwarded by way of the Burlington route. In this brief official statement is made known the decision of Postmaster-General Cortelyou in the railway mail service case that has attracted attention throughout the country.

DAMAGES FOR GUN BLOW.

TOLEDO (O.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Orleana G. Robbins was given a verdict of $11,500 against the Toledo Urban and Interurban Railroad Company today. She was struck on the head by a gun which fell from a rack in a car in which she was a passenger. She was partially paralyzed by the injury.

Salt Lake City, Utah, has, since the first of the year, been in the grip of an epidemic of cerebro-spinal meningitis. Since January 1, there have been twenty-four deaths and of these eight have been since February 1.

"WHITE BREAD"

Lacks Things the Body Needs.

The valuable food elements required to build up the nerves and brain are found up under the shell of the wheat and these parts the white flour miller discards, because they slightly darken the flour. It makes a big difference in the body whether it is fed the proper food elements or not.

A Missouri woman looked into the matter and found her weak stomach came from too much "nice white bread." She writes:

"About five years ago my health was very poor, appetite all gone, my stomach too weak to digest what little I could eat; everything soured, my nerves were weak and my heart skipped beats.

"The doctor treated me for liver trouble without much benefit and finally I had nervous prostration. I was very much discouraged and feared I would never be well again.

"Deciding upon a reform at once, and having heard so much about Grape-Nuts food for strengthening and building up a broken down system, I began to eat it and left off my white bread. It did not sour on my stomach as the white bread had done.

"My stomach soon got better, my nerves stronger and I commenced to gain every way right along. It was a boon to me; truly a nerve and brain builder. I have many thanks to give to Grape-Nuts and its originator for good health in my old age.

"I am 70 years old and ever since the first time we placed Grape-Nuts food on our table five years ago, it has always been there. Our family like the rich nutty taste and often eat it dry as well as with cream. But there are many other ways of preparing Grape-Nuts, and we never fail to recommend this food to those with tired and worn out brains and nerves." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. SACRAMENTO.
TO THE KNEE TO LABORITES.
Senate Surrenders to Turnpike Gang.
To Increase Laborers' Pay Will Pass.
Effort to Amend Measure Is Voted Down.
[BY FRANK GREAVES.
[BY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Senate in effect of its temper today was indicated that it will support labor bill fixing minimum day's wage for laborers on public work.
The forces lined up his forces for a preliminary skirmish and proved the majority of the upper house was loyal to the yoke of the labor and the demagogues. The bill has passed the Assembly, and when it will be laid before the Senate in its present form within a few days.
The issue came up in the Senate this morning, when Senator Mc-Gowan offered as amendment fixing the wage at $2.50 a day. He declared the Los Angeles City Council and civic and commercial bodies there were opposed to the proposed law and he called particular attention to the fact that would be adversely affect Owens River work under the rate of $2 a day in the case of common laborers.
Senator Wolfe replied to the defense of his colleague by the union labor members of the Senate. He attacked Mc-Gowan for pretending to amend the law and indulged in a rhapsody on the "white slaving man," that was hardly justified by the totemites of Los Angeles opposed to the interest of his constituents and for the good of the people will have to pay the bill.
The people of Orange county should not even support the poor by the minimum at which he called attention to the fact that would be a burden who already have to work help at any price through the general rise in the cost of common laborers. It is done practically out of the proposed change in the case of San Francisco, and the labor unions.
Wolfe was drawn, insisting that municipal governments take the lead in the payment of wages, regardless of the effect they have on general conditions.
Senator Wolfe for the amendment from $2.50 are: Senators Pasadena, Carter and Los Angeles, Belshaw of Alameda and Master of Stockton. Carter changed his vote and decided in favor of the bill. The four "ayes" finally stood twenty-seven to come up for final passage. A similar bill in both houses at the last session of the Legislature, but was killed by the Governor.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive

ences of the various committees here in the interest of medical law, have resulted in an agreement on the measure, a bill introduced by Senator Wolfe of Sacramento, a "regular" bill. It has been agreed to by those who are in power, that the nine members of the Board of Medical Examiners, to whom also shall have two osteopaths and two osteopathic physicians, shall be appointed by the governor, that school, which will be the proposal in all other valuable concessions granted the osteopaths.
The bill, however, are not to be in the terms named.

HARTMAN FAVORED.
[BY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive
Telegram.] Not necessarily as an expression of opinion, but just to humor him, the Senate today killed the anti-prizefight bill introduced by the Committee on Morals, where it has been for the last month.
The vote was 17 for and 16 against, on roll call.
It will now come on to the Senate without recommendation.
Senator Wolfe, the distinguished author of the bill, is averred, by the way, for the first time instead of being a recent fight in San Francisco, to be the effort of his friends to secure the passage of the bill by any means through the Senate, it will not pass at the hands of

desired legislation will be granted without protest of any kind.

F. W. Blanchard and Hartley Shaw are conducting an earnest and effective lobby and are meeting with flattering encouragement. They got in touch today with some of the most influential men in both houses and were given every assurance that the necessary good-roads law will be enacted.

Assemblyman Transue introduced in the lower house today a companion measure to that presented in the Senate yesterday, through which any county may appoint a highway commission and vote bonds for road work. The fact that the proposed law is optional rather than mandatory is very much in its favor.

State Highway Commissioner Ellery has taken an active interest in the Los Angeles county bill and has promised to aid in securing its passage, while members of the Roads and Highways Committee in each house have given a friendly ear to the arguments of Blanchard and Shaw.

Senator Greenwell's Attorney Tells About Counter Suit to Be Brought for Divorce.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Attorney George E. Whitaker who represents the interests of both Senator Charles Greenwell and Mrs. Clarence E. Young, in answer to an inquiry regarding the counter-suit to be brought against Young for divorce, said that the docket it would be filed within twenty days. Mrs. Young as yet has not answered her husband's complaint.

Young is still in the city. Late last night he asked Deputy Sheriff Quinn to accompany him to his residence. The officer accompanied him and said he saw nothing wrong.

Apron Day Today at the Broadway
An Announcement Full of Value Meaning

Aporn Department Moved to Third Floor

More and more women are watching for these apron days. The price of cotton has gradually been advancing, and yet here we are again today with aprons at prices that mean (under existing market conditions) lower prices than are quoted anywhere. Take into consideration the fact that every gingham apron is made of Amoskeag, that there is practically an unlimited quantity to choose from, and at the prices we quote the completed apron is less than the cost of making. Four restrictions—no phone or mail orders, no C.O.D.'s, and no deliveries at these prices.

Mother Hubbard Aprons 49c
Made of Amoskeag gingham, wide ruffle at bottom, straps over shoulder, like illustration. 49c each.

Aprons 42c
Made of gingham, wide hem at bottom, Mother Hubbard style; blue or brown and white checks.

Plain Aprons 35c
Deep ruffle at bottom, made of plain gingham, some with bibs and straps over shoulders. 35c today.

Mother Hubbard Aprons 15c
Deep yoke and long sleeves, cut very full, wide belt and hem, like those in illustration, worth $1.00, 75c today.

White Aprons 25c
Made of lawn, with bib and bretelle; some with large pocket and deep hem at bottom.

Sateen Aprons 25c
Plain black, made with pocket and hem. Also some with round ruffle. 25c today. Like picture.

You Should and Can Invest in Business Property

$110 Installments

The Citizens' Corporation makes this possible but success has come so fast that you will have to hurry to secure stock at the present price

The Citizens' Corporation has already received an offer of $100.00 per foot advance for the choice business property, cost $165,300, fronting 57x147 feet in depth, adjoining the Burbank Theater on the south, from which a fair income is now derived.

Although less than 2 months old, the Citizens' Corporation has already attained a position of dignity, solidity, and affluence among the financial institutions of Los Angeles.

In fact, this success is a matter of universal comment.

The Citizens' Corporation is organized to buy and sell business property.

Absolutely no promoter's stock.

Every dollar goes into the treasury and stays there until the directors use it in buying property for the stockholders.

Who are these directors, and how do you know they are honest and capable?—look at their names below.

We'd like to show you a list of other business men who have purchased stock in the Citizens'—men whose judgment you would accept any day; men whom you would be willing to follow into any enterprise.

You can buy one or more shares up to fifty.

STOCK IN THE CITIZENS' IS $105 PER SHARE, CASH, OR $110 IF BOUGHT IN $5 MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

Buying this stock is practically buying business property. The company has already made one purchase of $165,300. A big advance was offered for the property two days after it was bought. Price of stock is certain to be advanced. The directors may order this advance any day, without notice.

Stock may be purchased by mail or telegraph. Call or write for any other particulars desired.

ANGELENOS AFTER PRIZES.

Tennis Tournament to Begin Today at Coronado.

Northern Players May Fail to Enter Lists.

San Diegans Put Up Good Game—Real Contenders.

The annual Coronado tennis tournament opens this morning on the Coronado Hotel courts. Play in the men's singles will start at 9 o'clock, and as soon as a fair start is made in them the other events will be played. The tournament committee will try to keep things moving in order to finish the six events that are scheduled within the three days.

Los Angeles has sent nearly her full strength and, as it looks as if the northern players are not going to be on hand, the division of the prizes seem to be at the disposal of the players from this city. Tom Bundy, Alphonso Bell, Simpson Sinsabaugh and Nat Browne left for San Diego, yesterday, and the Sutton sisters, May and Florence, will also be on hand to see that the ladies' prizes do not go astray. Other local players who left yesterday to take part in the tournament are Charley Sutton, E. G. Gaylusha, and Mrs. A. E. Bell.

With the cream of the local players in the running the tournament should furnish some high-class play, although disappointment is still felt over the failure of Beals Wright to be present for his promised exhibition. Hopes are still entertained that Percy Murdock of Alameda, and possibly one or two of the San Francisco players, will put in an appearance at the last moment, but, when last heard from, Murdock stated that the chances were against the northerners making the trip.

Several of the San Diego players who are entered in the tournament are said to be putting up a good game at present, but any one of the four local men should have the class on them. Of the four, Bundy has been playing the most consistent singles game during the past year, but the winter's practice may have affected the relative standing of the cracks.

In last year's tournaments Bundy won the Fourth of July tournament at the Ocean Park Country Club, and climbed to the finals in the Coast championship tournament at San Rafael, losing the championship of Southern California to Hal Braly by a narrow margin. Browne showed great improvement in his game last season and if it proves as marked this year he will have to be figured on closely. Bell has not shown his true form for several years, but is still capable of putting up an article of tennis that is liable to win out in any company. Sinsabaugh probably is the best doubles player of the four, but his singles game is not as consistent as that of the others.

As usual, when the Sutton sisters are entered in a tournament it is an easy matter to forecast where the ladies' prizes will go. The match between May and Florence will be the final match of the women's singles, whether it occurs in the preliminary round or in the finals. May Sutton has been practicing hard out at Pasadena this winter, and interest will be keen in watching the improvement in her game, in view of the attempt which she will make next fall to recover the world's championship from Miss Douglas of England.

The men's doubles will afford an interesting fight between Sinsabaugh and Brown, and Bell and Bundy. The two teams have practiced together and have figured prominently in past tournaments.

The Coronado Country Club has been making every preparation to make the tournament a success in every way, and the affair promises to be a brilliant opening for the tennis season of 1907.

SIMPSON SINSABAUGH, popular Los Angeles tennis player.

WHITTIER VICTORIES.

Two Quaker Teams Roll Up High Scores Against Occidental Basketball Fives.

The Whittier College basketball team defeated the Occidental five on the latter's court, yesterday afternoon, by the score of 51 to 12. The Quakers were in excellent form and gave the best exhibition of basket shooting seen on the Presbyterian court this year. Not only the forwards were able to basket the ball, but each of the other players also connected for one or more goals.

Occidental showed a slight improvement over her play in the previous game with Whittier, but was no match for the Quakers.

Whittier started off fast and soon had a comfortable lead, which the Presbyterians were unable to reduce. Meales and Perry threw several difficult goals. The Quakers were able to put the ball in the basket when the opposing guards were closely covering. Hillery was the only Occidentalite who had a good eye for the basket, and toward the latter part of the first half he threw two pretty baskets from the center of the court. The half ended with Whittier leading by the score of 34 to 8.

The Presbyterians held their own for the first ten minutes of the second half, but two goals in quick succession by the Quaker forwards sent them ballooning, and Whittier proceeded to roll up points. Hillery threw another spectacular basket in the middle of the half.

Tott and Meales played the best game for Whittier, and Hillery, Beal and Conrad excelled for the Presbyterians.

The line-up:

Whittier.		Occidental.
Perry	forward	Beal
Meales	forward	Rush, Blee
Tepids, Tott	center	Conrad
Tott, Beeson	guard	Hillery
Blair	guard	MacDowell

Time of halves, twenty minutes: fouls, Whittier 4, Occidental 6; goals from the field, Perry 7, Meales 9, Tepids 5, Tott 5, Blair 1, Beal 1, Hillery 3, Conrad 1; goals from fouls, Tott 3, Beal 2; referee, Way; umpire, Blair.

CURTAIN RAISER.

As a curtain raiser to the 'varsity game, the "prep" teams of the colleges played a fast contest. The young Presbyterians were defeated by the score of 27 to 17. The Quakers had the better team work and were able to locate the basket more consistently.

Sharpless and Holton put up the best game for the Whittier "preps," and Carver and McKenney shone for Occidental.

Line-up:

Occidental.		Whittier
Baer	forward	Sharpless
McKenney	forward	Beeson
Carver	center	Feeler
Dane	guard	Mills
Gault, Traak	guard	Holton

Time of halves, twenty minutes, goals from field, Baer 4, McKenney 1, Carver 3, Sharpless 3, Beeson 1, Feeler 5, Holton 2; fouls, Occidental 7, Whittier 6; goals from fouls, Beeson 5, McKenney 3; umpire, Way; referee, Blair.

WOMEN'S GOLF PLAY.

Semi-finals Won by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Munn, Who Are to Meet in Finals Today.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CORONADO, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In today's playing of the semi-finals in the women's golf tournament, Mrs. F. W. Jackson beat Mrs. Heber Ingle, 8 up and 7 to play, and Mrs. Hurbert Munn beat Mrs. George Sturges 4 up and 3 to play. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Munn will play the final round, 36 holes, tomorrow.

The annual womens' golf tourney at the links of the Coronado Country Club is on. The first match play round took place Monday. Only two of the four matches were played, the other two going by default. Mrs. F. W. Jackson beat Mrs. Solomon Sturgis of Chicago, 8 up and 6 to play, and Mrs. Helen Ingle won by default of Mrs. R. B. Thomas. Mrs. Herbert Munn beat Mrs. G. S. Garrett of the San Francisco Country Club 3 up and 2 to play. Mrs. G. Sturgis of Chicago won from Mrs. John Hawley, Jr., by default.

WOMEN AT GOLF.

Fourteen enthusiastic women golfers of the Victoria Club met at the club links yesterday for the second of their series of golf matches. The match was won, with a score of 10 to 7, by a team composed of Mrs. Martin A. Chase, Miss Sand, Mrs. E. B. Howe, Mrs. P. S Castleman, Mrs. C. R. Stibbens and Mrs. Alexander. The losers included Mrs. W. Gilmore, Mrs. Harry Kearne, Mrs. Gaylord, Miss Rita West, Miss Marybel Heath and Miss Marjorie Howe.

Tournament Ends.

REDLANDS, Feb. 13.—The basketball tournament between four teams known as the Dostals, the Reid and Findlays, Union Savings Bank and Stutt Bros. came to a close, last night, the Dostals winning the handsome silver trophy presented by Manson and Bay, local jewelers. A dinner will be given by the teams on Washington's birthday at which time the trophy will be presented The Dostals won seven out of eight games.

Bronco Busting Shifts.

EL PASO (Tex.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because steer tying and bronco busting contests were prohibited by a Texas law, which went into effect last June, El Paso sports have obtained a concession from the Mexican government for such exhibitions in Juarez, Mex., across the river from this city. A five years' lease has been secured on a large tract and work on a big grand stand has begun. Dates for two such contests have been announced already.

Chamber of Commerce Declares Itself Against Proposition to Cut Strip Off Orange County.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday a request was received from the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce asking the board to take action relative to the proposed annexation of part of Orange county to Los Angeles county.

In response to the communication the following resolution was passed and ordered sent to the members of the Legislature, and a copy sent to the Chamber of Commerce of Santa Ana:

"Whereas, a certain bill has been introduced into the Legislature of the State for the purpose of changing the boundary line between Orange county and Los Angeles county, whereby certain territory will be shut off from Orange county, and added to Los Angeles county; and whereas, such a bill, if passed, would work great injustice to Orange county; and whereas, no good and sufficient reasons for attaching said territory to Los Angeles county has been presented to this board; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That this chamber earnestly protests against the passage of such bill, and respectfully requests our Legislature to vote against said bill."

METHODISTS PLAN TO MEET MORMONS.

UNIVERSITY of Southern California athletes are to journey to Salt Lake City, Utah, in May, to contest for honors with the University of Utah track team. The trip may be extended to Denver and Colorado Springs to meet the track teams of the Colorado State University and Colorado College, respectively, and on the return the team may stop at Reno to meet the University of Nevada. Coach Holmes signed the contract with Utah yesterday, calling for a two-years' agreement, and negotiations are on with the other schools. The Mormons are to come to Los Angeles next year. This will be the first time any Southern California collegiate track team has left the Coast to compete.

Arrangements have been completed whereby the University of Southern California track team will meet the University of Utah aggregation and possibly several of the other Rocky Mountain colleges and universities in a long trip planned for May.

An agreement has just been negotiated between Coach H. R. Holmes of U.S.C. and Joe Maddock, head of the physical training department of the State University of Utah, which guarantees the local team a meet with the Mormons not later than the first week in May.

Coach Holmes yesterday signed the contract covering all the necessary details, and the paper has been forwarded to Salt Lake where the signature of the other party will be attached.

The agreement covers a period of two years and provides that U.S.C. shall go to Salt Lake, this spring; the eastern school guaranteeing to pay transportation and all expenses of ten men to Salt Lake and return and give the visiting team a share of the profits of the tournament. It also provides that one year later the Utah university shall come to Los Angeles under equally favorable conditions.

It also is very likely that the local athletes will go as far east as Colorado and measure strength with those of the State University at Boulder, but this is not assured as yet for the reason that Holmes did not put the matter up to them until it was certain that the team would go as far east as Utah. Other schools which have been addressed relative to the securing of dates are Colorado College at Colorado Springs, and the State University of Nevada, at Reno.

Two dates are open for the contest in the Mormon capital, the second Saturday in April and Saturday, May 5. Should the pilgrimage extend over the Rockies, the May date will be chosen, and this will permit the team to accept the invitation to figure in the inter-mountain field day in Denver, May 18. This carnival includes the State University teams of Colorado, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, and New Mexico.

This action is important, not only because it results in bringing together two strong aggregations, but it marks the era of a wider and more renowned scope for Southern California athletics. It will undoubtedly lead to Eastern States to look to Southern California for some of their strongest competition. It also lengthens the season considerably for the local men in training. The last regular intercollegiate meet of the season here occurs on March 23. This completes the college work, and on April 6 will follow the competition of the A.A.U., which takes place on Bovard field. The deal just consummated extends the season another month, and perhaps six weeks.

Incidentally, this alliance with Salt Lake puts Coach Holmes in a peculiar position. For four years he was in charge of all athletic work in the Utah institution. The contestants he will meet there are the men he put in training. They were preps then and have not yet left the institution. One of them, the captain, writes Holmes that it will be a case of his old men against his new. Holmes says some of those boys made excellent showings, and if their development has been consistent, they will be a full match for his present protégés.

Whitney and Moore of Utah ran the 100-yard dash in ten seconds; Judd, Brown and Pitt were good quarter-milers; and the weights were especially represented. Benyon throws the hammer 135 feet, and is good for 41 feet with the shot. Russell is on a par with him, and is also a pole vaulter. Under Holmes he was good for 11 feet 4 inches, while Adams cleared 11 feet 9 inches in the same event.

The Methodist coach is equally familiar with the work of other teams west of the continental divide. He took the first team out of Utah to Colorado, Montana and Nevada. It was his personal acquaintance in the Mormon university that made it possible to secure such a date. He has taken the subject up with Manager Maddock each year since he left there to come to U.S.C., with the above flattering result.

Which of the Methodist athletes will go depends upon their condition and showing at the close of the season. The announcement in The Times is expected to cause every man to put on the spiked shoes with renewed zeal.

Every Man Knows Manhattan Shirts

Don't you find them satisfactory? Every idea ever thought of to improve a shirt in any way has been used by the makers of the Manhattan.

Yokes are long—collar bands don't see-saw—shoulders are well shaped, and sleeves are full enough and neither too long or too short.

A Manhattan shirt is good anywhere, but has a double guarantee when from a Silverwood store.

Spring styles are here—most of them "coat cut"—pleated fronts, soft shirts—styles for any occasion.

Stripes, checks, plain shades, and novelties—oxfords, cheviots, madras, penangs—colors and styles, matters of choice; but be sure about the Manhattan—$1.50 to $5.00.

Games at U.S.C.

The third academy of U.S.C. met the fourth year preps., yesterday afternoon, in a baseball game, which resulted in a 2 to 1 victory for the third year class, with a score of 5 to 4. In spite of the severe drubbing Whittier gave U.S.C. in basketball Tuesday evening in the Quaker town, the Methodists are willing to face the team again, and these fives will play here Saturday afternoon.

Match Is Assured.

RENO (Nev.) Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Kohl and Johnson, the new pugilistic promoters of this city, tonight denied a report that Britt was to take the place of Young Corbett against Kid Herman. They say that the Herman-Corbett battle is absolutely assured for March 18. Corbett is here and doing light work in preparation for serious training. Other matches are negotiating.

Continuous Pool.

Karnes and Baker played an even game last night, according to the handicap, in their continuous pool match at the Old Crowe, No. 534 South Spring street. They are to play two nights. Karnes to get 300 balls to 250 for Baker. Last night Karnes made 152 to 127 for Baker and they will finish the match tonight.

The St. Albert Hotel, one of the oldest in Charleston, W. Va., was destroyed by fire early yesterday. The loss was $65,000. J. H. Crouse of Baltimore, a traveling salesman, jumped from a third-story window and probably was fatally injured.

TO ENJOY A GOOD DINNER

How to Avoid Distress and Indigestion After Eating.

Let us tell you how you can enjoy a good dinner, so that the heartiest meal will set well on your stomach and cause no unpleasant and disagreeable after effects.

We will show you how to retain the appetite of your childhood and the enjoyment of food so that it will taste as well as when mother cooked the dinner.

There is no hard work necessary to do this; no need of a rigid and self-denying diet list; no call for nasty and disagreeable medicines. Simply take a Mi-o-na stomach tablet before each meal and before going to bed, and it will so strengthen the stomach that before long a hearty meal will give you gratification and comfort, without the least fear of distress and suffering.

The strongest proof we can offer of our faith in this advice is the fact that we give an absolute unqualified guarantee (applying to two 50c boxes of Mi-o-na,) that your money will be refunded unless Mi-o-na cures.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive, giving only temporary relief, but a specific for all diseases of the stomach, strengthening the digestive organs and making a permanent cure.

We absolutely agree that your money will be refunded should you buy a 50c box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and not be satisfied with the results. Mi-o-na is sold by druggists everywhere, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c.

Write today for a free sample package, and also give us your symptoms, and one of the best known stomach specialists will give your case his careful and personal attention without charge. Booth's Mi-ona Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

Vigorous at 94 Years, Thanks To the Great Renewer of Youth

MR. MARSHALL PIERCE, 94 YEARS OLD.

Mr. Marshall Pierce, Putney, Vt., credits Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey with keeping him alive.

Mr. Pierce, who was 94 last June, is the oldest man in the town, is hale and hearty and goes for a ride or a walk on pleasant days.

Mr. Pierce, as station agent, sold the first ticket at the Putney Station on the Vermont Valley Railroad when it was built. In gratitude he writes:

"It IS true I have used your whiskey and like it the best of all I have ever used. I was 94 on June 27th. Among my other presents was some of your Malt Whiskey from my nephew. . . . I know that I should not be alive to day did I not take it regularly in moderate quantities, as I do not have much appetite."—MARSHALL PIERCE, Putney, Vt., August 7, 1906.

Thousands of letters like the above are received daily from grateful patients from all parts of the world exalting the marvelous benefits received from the world's greatest tonic stimulant.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children, as it is a food already digested. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is recognized as a medicine everywhere. This is a guarantee.

Sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Insist on the genuine and see that the "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label. Beware of refilled bottles and spurious malt Whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unreliable dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Illustrated Medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

GREAT WEALTH FOR INVESTORS IN HIGH CLASS INDUSTRIAL STOCKS

Crescent Rotary Steam Engine Shares Quickly Taken by Local Capital

Los Angelenos Quick to See the Big Profit In This Great Engine

This Week May Close Every Share In Parent Company

In writing about the wonderful steam engine and its value to the commercial world, we must not lose sight of the one great fact that applies to Los Angeles investors at this particular time, and that is the necessity of haste in buying their shares early this week if they expect to have a financial interest in this great enterprise. Notice has been served on the local director of the company, Mr. James Austin Larson, 212 Mercantile Place, that large investors in other cities have bought up the entire issue of stock, and the few shares he has for sale are the only remaining ones on the market, at one dollar or any price.

Negotiations have been opened by the officers of the parent company at Spokane for the sale of certain foreign rights of manufacture for One Million Dollars, which, when consummated, will make every share of stock now selling at one dollar worth from three to five dollars.

The sale in the local field has been phenomenal, perhaps exceeding that of any industrial stock ever offered here. But why not? Here is an invention which has begun to revolutionize steam power. Have you seen this little wonder? It has the old-time piston or reciprocating type and the turbine engine backed off the map for utility and power. It takes up about the same amount of room that your phonograph does when you put it on the library table to amuse yourself and and friends. In fact, it is just about the size of those little electric motors you see tacked up on the side of the wall that run, say, an ordinary turning lathe or drill. But in strength its 10 horse-power is sufficient to turn the wheels of the whole machine shop. The writer went to see one of these engines the other day "hooked up," and as soon as the steam was turned on, whiz! went the engine with its musical hum, not unlike an electric dynamo. The first and most noticeable feature was the absence of all vibration, such as the pounding of the ordinary reciprocating type, and if I were a power user, and had an engine to buy, that one feature would be a determining factor. While the engineer was making it spin at a tremendous rate, he simply pulled a lever, and immediately it reversed and was soon going just as fast the other way. This raised a question by one interested spectator, and then Mr. Larson showed how in the Crescent Rotary Steam Engine such a thing as a "dead center" was impossible. Several "stunts" were performed at this test of the little wonder that would "stall" any ordinary type, but did not seem to affect the Crescent even a little. What a legion of uses this engine can be put to. Launches and all sorts of marine uses; hoists, automobiles, elevators, small factories; and, if the larger power of hundreds of horsepower is required, build larger models or hook up a battery of these smaller ones. By further tests the great economy in steam consumption was demonstrated. Of course it costs more money for the fuel as well as for larger boilers if more steam is generated. Then in the cost of making, in size and weight the Crescent Rotary is less than a third the size of the ordinary type, so in metal alone would mean a substantial profit in its manufacture. The little engine itself is the best evidence that it will do everything the owners claim for it, and with this fact firmly established certainly there is an unlimited market for it. It has a field of its own, absolutely dominating the power market. What this means to the fortunate owner of stock in the parent company can readily be imagined when we recall the usual profits of a product of large use owned and controlled by one concern. Some call it a monopoly, but the best cure for the opponent of such an industrial institution is to give him stock in it, so he can share in the enormous revenue. This is the very opportunity that presents itself to every Los Angelenos right now. One dollar invested today will be worth from three to five, and as the shares are one dollar, par value (and selling like hot cakes at par value), even the smallest investor can get in on the ground floor. As there are less than ten thousand shares left for sale, you had better "put on steam" and get to 212 Mercantile Place today and put in every dollar you can spare, for tomorrow may be everlastingly too late. Mr. Larson and his assistant will be at the above address during the evenings to accommodate those whose business prevents coming during the day. Whatever you do, don't put it off.

Take A Day Off

And let us give you a free trip to see our Glendale Valley View Tract, where we are selling 50-foot lots, with all improvements paid for, for as little as $350 and on the easiest kind of terms.

They're beautiful lots and we want you to see them.

SYNDICATE FORMING—

We are forming a syndicate to purchase 40 acres of land fronting 1113 feet on the new Covina Electric line, same distance from business center as Rose Hill on Pasadena Short Line. The land is rolling but well divides without waste. Highest ridge, which is 700 feet long, lies about 30 feet above the level of the San Gabriel Valley, and presents an unsurpassed view of the beautiful valley and surrounding mountains from Mt. Lowe to San Jacinto Peak. We have this land at least $400 per acre below surrounding lands. Four more parts to be taken to complete syndicate. Only $1000 cash necessary to join syndicate. $2500 building restrictions on adjoining property. Track laying is now in progress on the Covina electric and if you want to make 100 per cent. on your money in 90 days, here is your opportunity. Will you be one of the four to take the remaining interests? GRANADA REALTY CO., GLENN C. SEELYE, 418 Union Trust. 424 Citizens' National Bank. OWNERS. 15

FOR SALE—$5 PER ACRE FOR 580 ACRES within 6 miles of the city limits; foothill and mountain land with some water; owner claims that 40 acres of this land is good plow land. RICHARDS REALTY CO., 429-430 Douglas Bldg.

FOR SALE—Acreage for subdivision. $20,000—37½ acres near Alhambra, all level, rich land, within short distance of electric cars. This tract can be subdivided into acre lots and 200 per cent. profit made quick.

$55,000—55 acres in the choicest part of the San Gabriel Valley, and only 2 miles from city limits, with electric car line through center of tract. Adjoining acreage held at $750 to $1000, subdivided this would sell quick. RICHARDS REALTY CO., 429-430 Douglas Bldg. 14

FOR SALE— 40 acres on new Covina line, same distance out as Rose Hill, at $400 acre less than any adjoining lands. Land suitable for subdivision as high-class property; $5000 building restrictions on surrounding tracts. GLENN C. SEELYE, 424 Citizens' National Bank Bldg., or GRANADA REALTY CO., 418 Union Trust Bldg. OWNERS. 14

FOR SALE— EAGLE ROCK. $1200 PER ACRE. 20 acres in Eagle Rock Valley, fronting on 120-ft. boulevard, 4 blocks from Eagle Rock car, and right on proposed Pasadena-Hollywood car line. The ground all around this is subdivided. Lots adjoining it selling at an average of $700. This piece is perfectly level and will cut into 110 lots, 5x150. A fortune for the subdivider. R. P. SHEA, Owner, 407 Union Trust Bldg., S.E. cor. Fourth and Spring st. Phone A5434. 14

FOR SALE— 10 ACRES ON CAR LINE. WILL SUBDIVIDE WITHOUT ANY WASTE. The Grand avenue cars pass this property and the fare is only 5 cents. $250 per acre cheaper than surrounding acreage. Sandy soil. Terms easy. W. C. NORMAN, Home A1238. 519 Fay Bldg. 15

FOR SALE—ACREAGE FOR SUBDIVISION on Vermont and Wesley aves., near Slauson, will make 60 large lots. 2 car lines; land never flooded, fine soil, no alkali, good well and pump, plenty of water; this tract is improved with California houses, barn, fruit and ornamental trees. CHEAPEST ON STREET.

CORNER 18TH AND LOS ANGELES STS.

122x90, ALLEY.

We have received instructions from non-resident owner to dispose of the southwest corner of 16th and Los Angeles sts. immediately at the bargain price quoted. Inside lots on Los Angeles street are selling at $200 per foot and over. The street is soon to be asphalt paved and made a main artery like Main st., which, although less than a block distant from this corner, is held at $1000 per foot in this vicinity. The price has just been reduced from $27,000 which was lower than other Los Angeles street corners farther out. There is a good profit for some one here. Query—If the corners of 16th and 18th sts. (One block west of Main are worth $650 a foot, how much profit will the corner of 16½ and Los Angeles (1-2 block east of Main) yield in a year's time?

$25,000.

FOR SALE—

10 MILES FROM FRESNO.
320 ACRES.
$40 ACRES.

130 acres alfalfa, 1 and 2 years old. This alfalfa is all checked and leveled in first-class shape and requires only 2 men to handle the 1 cubic feet of water (which belongs to the ranch) when irrigating.

South Pacific station one mile; Santa Fe 2½ miles.

Two sets of improvements with young home orchard; one set, new last spring and up to date in every particular.

Every acre has first-class water right; all the water required for alfalfa from February 1 to about September 1, at 62½c per acre a year; water supplied from Kings River by Fresno canal and irrigation company system.

Good roads, telephone connection from both houses connects with Fresno exchange.

One mile frontage on famous San Joaquin River.

Will never be bothered with alkali.

All fenced into 40s and 80s with boards and wire; every acre can be cultivated. The fifth crop of hay was cut from some of the ranch last year.

The famous Kearney Ranch, 5 miles south, gets from $10 to $15 per year for alfalfa land with no improvements.

There goes with the ranch 12 head of work and driving horses, mowing machines, rakes, discs, harrows, plows, wagons, single buggy, double and single harness, blacksmith shop, 50 tons of hay, 2 tons of barley, etc., etc.

This is a snap if taken now; owner's business requires his presence in the East.

Price $55,000.

Terms—$20,000 down; balance in 1, 2 and 3 years at 6 per cent.; or $10,000 down, and $10,000 each year thereafter until paid for at 6 per cent., payable annually.

Will divide commission if sold direct; immediate possession.

If party desiring and able to purchase this property, upon investigation, finds any misstatement of facts, as advertised above, his expenses will be refunded.

'CHANGE NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Considerable excitement was caused on the local stock exchange yesterday morning by the strong market for Mexican Petroleum on ninety-day buyer contracts, fully 10,000 of which sold at prices ranging from 1.38 to 1.40. Reason for the activity in this stock, which has been slightly sluggish for the last month and a half, is a rumor that a big consolidation movement was on foot. This rumor was found to be based on very strong facts indeed.

The men who control the Mexican Petroleum recently formed the Hausteca Oil Company, of Mexico. The oil lands on which the new oil company has been carrying on development work are said to be very high class. It is said that the opinion of the superintendent of the Mexican Petroleum Company, Herbert G. Wylie, is that the property of the Hausteca company is far better than that of the Mexican Petroleum, although it is yet undeveloped. The new company was incorporated with a capital of $15,000,000. Announcement now is made in a circular letter to the stockholders in the Mexican Petroleum Company, to the effect that the men controlling both companies are about to organize a new company to be called the Mexican Petroleum Company Limited, with a capital of $50,000,000. This capital will be divided into two issues. There are to be $12,000,000 of preferred stock upon which the new company proposes to pay a dividend of 8 per cent. and $23,000,000 of common stock. This new company is formed for the purpose of taking over the stock of the two above-named companies, the Mexican Petroleum stock at a ratio of two shares of the preferred stock to one of the Mexican Petroleum's. At the same time a bonus of one share of the common will be given with each two of the preferred. This will take care of the entire issue of the Mexican Petroleum, $6,000,000 worth, which is out of the treasury. The stock of the Hausteca company will be taken over on a ratio of two for one, the common stock being used in this transfer only. This assimilation of the stocks of both the smaller companies will practically make the Mexican Petroleum Company Limited a holding company.

The Mexican Petroleum Company Limited is incorporated under the laws of Delaware. This will be a strong feature when listing the stock on the eastern markets. Heretofore the stock of California companies, incorporated under the laws of this State, was looked upon with great disfavor by many investors, as the laws governing incorporations in this State are so stringent, whereas those of various Eastern States are more favorable.

advertisement thoroughly, then cut it out and put a chain on it, or lay it in your safe for future reference to see later, perhaps in a year or two, what you missed if you neglect your opportunity to buy stock of the Delaware & Lackawana Steel Company when it is offered to you at $1 a share. Bell Telephone stock advanced from less than $1 a share to $200 a share within 10 years. There is no reason why stock of the Delaware & Lackawana Steel Company with a new process, that revolutionizes the making of steel, will not do equally as well or still better, in the same or a less length of time.

All of those who had the opportunity and good judgment to get in with Andrew Carnegie when he first entered the steel business are now rich, hundreds of them are millionaires. Those who get in the same business now with Edwin Cooper Wills, president of the Delaware & Lackawana Steel Company, who has invented a new process, which reduces the cost of making steel just one-fifth, have the OPPORTUNITY to do EQUALLY as WELL or BETTER.

The Delaware & Lackawana Steel Company has a low capitalization of over $200,000, all common stock, fully paid and forever non-assessable. It has honest, enterprising steel and business men behind it. It owns its own big foundry and machine shops, situated on 41½ acres of land, one-fourth of a mile from the biggest iron mines in the United States at Oxford, New Jersey, only 71 miles from New York City. It has already to begin with enough orders for steel on hand to overtax the capacity of the plant from the minute the first wheel is turned. It begins operation from the start without a debt and on a money-earning basis. February 15, or March 1 at the latest, the plant will be running in its full capacity and turning out 40,000 pounds of steel daily at an earning of 2 cents a pound, equal to $800 daily.

The capitalization is low. There is no watered stock. When dividends are declared there will be only $200,000 worth of stock among which to divide the profits. The men behind this company pride themselves that they are very conservative when they say that they will pay 8 per cent. save the mark. This is a very small estimate of the earnings from any steel plant. In fact there is not a steel plant in the United States today that is earning any less than this amount of profit and that by the old method of making steel. We are making no exaggerated statements whatever when we say that we honestly expect EVERY SHARE of this STOCK some day to be WORTH a SMALL FORTUNE to the OWNER.

We had only a limited amount of this stock to sell to begin with and no stated length of time in which to sell it. When the stock is ordered off the market, which is likely to occur at any time, probably with the turning of the first wheel in the new plant, there will be no more for sale by the new company. You will then, if you want in, be compelled to buy it from private individuals who, even if they would sell, would require you to pay them a big bonus for stock that they had the good judgment and foresight to grasp at the lowest price when first presented. If you really want an interest in this gigantic enterprise now is the time to get it. You can gain absolutely nothing by waiting or hesitating, but you may lose out on an investment that later will mean an independent fortune to you; therefore act at once. Send in your order—now—today, tomorrow may be too late.

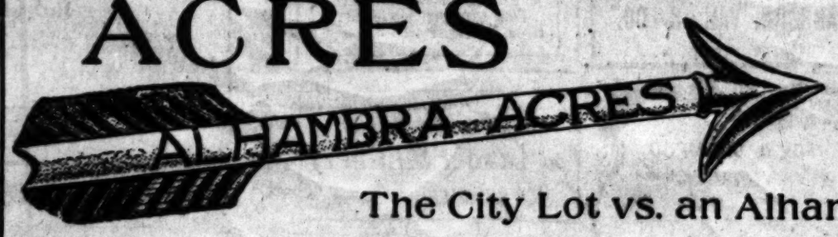
ALHAMBRA ACRES



Between the City and the Mountains

The City Lot vs. an Alhambra Acre

Alhambra Acres offers the city business man greater advantages for an ideal home life than any other suburb of Los Angeles. Think what it means to get away from depressing reminders of business cares, to escape the noise, smoke, dust, and odors for the quiet grandeur of semi-country life amid the beauties of nature's mountain scenery. Where pure air, sunshine, and freedom take the place of city distractions. Is it not time you exchanged that cramped city lot for the WHOLE ACRE at Alhambra Acres? Its environment guarantees you daily health, daily recreation and renewed strength for the daily toil.

They are BIG homesites at Alhambra Acres—large enough for lawns, trees, and flowers, and gardens if you want them. Living expenses are low. Taxes are low. And there are all modern improvements, added to the electric and steam car service that puts you within easy reach of business, the theater, and city social life. The streets are graded and oiled; walks and curbs are of cement; the building restrictions place proper restraints upon building; there's gas, electricity, pure water. Earnest, thoughtful people are turning to Alhambra Acres to escape the over-crowding city. Lots are selling and values daily increase.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Bankrupt Fireman.

Porfirio R. Moreno, fireman resident here, has filed a bankruptcy petition in the United States District Court. He states his debts are $1106, and his only assets $10 cash.

Miss Ball to Speak.

Aged Woman Injured.

Mrs. A. Krause of No. 911 Ortega street, stepped from a street car at Eleventh and Main streets last night, while it was in motion, and sustained a fractured limb. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

This evening in Music Hall, Blanchard Building, the Women's Press Club will hold an open meeting to consider matters Oriental. Miss Katherine Ball, recently returned from the East, will discuss Oriental art, and exhibit rare prints.

At the Polytechnic.

Prof. Alley spent yesterday in the Polytechnic High School, to the pleasure of the pupils. His varied and enlivening talks of Oriental life and venturesome explorations were to the taste of the live young people of what he declares to be "an absolutely ideal institution."

Highwayman Still at Liberty.

The police, after a fruitless search, have exhausted every clew to the identity of the footpad who attacked Miss Minnie Palmer of Sixty-fourth and Sycamore streets Monday evening and stole her purse. Miss Palmer believes she can easily recognize the man who attacked her if he is taken into custody.

Car Victim May Die.

Mrs. C. J. Strong, who was injured in a street car accident at Twenty-eighth and San Pedro streets, is not expected to recover. Her left hip is fractured. She was cared for at the Receiving Hospital. She came to Los Angeles recently from San Francisco and has worked as a domestic for Mrs. H. S. Clemens at No. 421 East Thirty-eighth street.

Swallows Much Morphine.

Frank Thomas, a messenger boy whose home is on Boyle Heights, was brought to the Receiving Hospital last night suffering from the effects of an overdose of morphine. The boy has been treated for the habit and last night succeeded in securing a large amount which he swallowed. His stomach was relieved of the poison and he was put to bed.

Drops Dead.

An unknown man about 35 years old walked into the warehouse of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson at Central avenue and East Second street yesterday morning and fell dead. He wore a brown pepper and salt suit, was of fair complexion and had a light moustache. The body was taken to Bresee Brothers' undertaking rooms. An inquest will be held today.

Struck in Fight.

John M. Evans, whose home is at No. 129 South Flower street, was treated late last night at the Receiving Hospital for a deep gash on the back of the head. Evans declares he was trying to aid the police in a fight with several intoxicated men last night. He says that some one in the crowd either stabbed him or else he was struck with a club.

Francis Willard Memorial.

The Prohibition Union will hold a Frances Willard memorial meeting in Symphony Hall on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Fred F. Wheeler will preside, and addresses will be delivered by Mrs. Alice McDaniels and Mrs. Mae Guthrie Tongier. Dr. Laura D. Locke will read selections from the writings of Miss Willard, and an essay on Miss Willard by Miss Alice Wheeler will be read.

Noted Baptist Coming.

A Baptist missionary meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The speaker will be Rev. Dr. H. C. Mabie of Boston, home secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union. Like other workers who have passed through this city, Dr. Mabie is en route to China for the great centenary conference. On Monday night he will be the guest of honor at a banquet of the Baptist Social Union, to be given at the Hotel Angelus.

Burbank Victims.

Victims of the Burbank shooting affray are resting comfortably at the County Hospital and unless complications arise, it is expected that all will recover. A. Stancliff, brother-in-law of the assailant, is suffering from a severe scalp wound. Miss Ruth Stancliff has a painful bullet wound in the thigh and is more seriously hurt than the others. William Strader, who is also at the County Hospital, is regarded as a maniac. He has bullet wounds and scalp wounds.

Told Fake Hold-up Story.

That A. Rossen of No. 3115 Griffith avenue told the police a falsehood when he said he had been held up was proved last night. Rossen declared that two men had attacked him while he was on his way home. He said the robbers jumped into his rig and knocked him senseless, stealing $55 from him. Rossen enjoyed a game of poker in a notorious joint downtown, and to "square" things with his wife, after he had lost $55, told the story of the hold-up. He confessed to the police yesterday and gave information which, it is believed, will result in a successful raid on the gambling den.

Reception for Trotter.

Melville Trotter, a successful worker among men in Minneapolis and other eastern cities, and a coworker with the famous evangelist, Dr. R. A. Torrey, has arrived in this city, and will remain here for a month or more. He is a brother of Will C. Trotter, superintendent of the Union Rescue Mission. The Young Men's Christian Association has arranged for a great reception to Mr. Trotter in Temple Auditorium on Sunday afternoon. A large body of men will meet at the association headquarters at 2 o'clock and march to the Auditorium, under the leadership of the association brass band.

Thursday Night Addresses.

Rev. Walton Hall Doggett, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, East Los Angeles, has arranged for a series of Thursday-night addresses during Lent, by the various rectors of the city. The first will be delivered tonight by Rev. T. C. Marshall, who will be followed on succeeding Thursday evenings by Rev. J. D. H. Browne, Rev. Dr. J. J. Wilkins, Rev. L. G. Morris, Rev. J. Arthur Evans, Rev. Charles T. Murphy, the series closing with a sermon by Rev. T. C. Marshall on March 28. Rev. Mr. Hall conducted Ash Wednesday services yesterday, and will deliver an address on "Spiritual Power" each Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

Charges Against Patrolman.

The alleged misconduct of Patrolman Roy Allen during the excitement after the explosion is the subject of charges made to Police Commissioner Woodill yesterday. The accuser of Allen is John R. Elliott of the Associated Press; his charges were substantiated to Mr. Woodill by several other newspaper men. Allen disregarded the rights of the newspaper men under their fire badges—which guarantee them admission through police lines—and attempted to eject them from the ruins, even threatening them with a "black jack" which he had fastened to his wrist. Elliott appealed to Chief Kern and Allen was promptly "called down." The Police Commission will investigate the charges. The officer claims that he was ordered by the Chief not to allow any one but officers and patrolmen in the building.

ACID BOTTLE NEARLY EMPTY.

Found Beside Body of Well-Dressed Man in Vacant Lot on Main, Near Eighth Street.

The body of a well-dressed man about 35 years of age was found last night, in a vacant lot on Main street, near Eighth. A check for $50 in his pocket was signed "James Forbes." A bottle of carbolic acid, of which about one-third of the contents were missing, lay a few feet from the body.

On his person was a receipted bill from Brauer & Krohn, tailors. Nothing is known of the man at the Coroner's office, and today an effort will be made to find his relatives. Both bill and check were signed by the same person. It is believed that the man is a tourist.

BREVITIES.

New lot of framed pictures will be placed on sale today. Prices are cut to bedrock. Our stock of pictures and mouldings must go, even at a loss to us, as we are retiring from business. The McClellan-Kanst Co., 111 Winston st., below Main, bet. 4th and 5th sts.

J. W. Frey has moved his stock of mantels, grates, tiles and andirons to his warerooms, cor. Los Angeles and Twelfth streets, where can be seen the largest assortment of black and brass fireplace trimmings to be found in the United States. Lowest prices.

Keep Lent this year. Noonday meetings for everybody, St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, 523 South Olive street. Bishop Johnson speaks today. Five minutes' walk, twenty minutes' service, quick lunch and back to business by 1 o'clock. Just what you need. Come.

THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 14, 1907.
On All News Stands: Trains and Streets, 5 CENTS

BUILDING IS SHATTERED, FOUR DEAD, MANY HURT.

Terrific Explosion of Gas Beneath Floor on Second Street Buries Helpless Victims Under Ruins.

AS THE RESULT of an explosion under the old Woodward restaurant, No. 114 West Second street, yesterday morning, two men and two women are dead, fourteen persons are seriously injured, and over a score are suffering from cuts and contusions from flying glass and débris. Some of those injured are expected to die.

Indications point to an accumulation of illuminating gas under the floor of the restaurant, the ignition of which caused the explosion which wrecked that part of the Rawson building fronting on Second street, and adjoining Center Place. Flying débris shattered windows in a number of near-by buildings, including the First National Bank.

Acts of heroism, scenes of pathos, incidents anecdotal marked the disaster, the most peculiar of its kind in the history of Los Angeles. Women showed, as well as men, the bravery of pity. Rescuers took their lives in their hands while working to save other lives. Los Angeles has a right to be proud of its rank and file.

Outside of the loss of life and the suffering of the maimed, the monetary loss was trifling as compared with the other loss. In money the damage is measured generously by $14,000. The sum total of sorrow and suffering cannot be so measured. The only possible gain should be some plan to prevent ever again such a catastrophe.

Miss La Von Meyer.

Where the full force of the explosion tore its way in the rear of Cressaty's restaurant, and the tailor shop of H. L. Yerger, Nos. 114, 116 and 118 West Second street, leaving a mass of bricks and broken beams. At the top is shown the interior of the westerly room of the restaurant, where the entire second story dropped inward, burying Miss La Von Meyer and crushing her life out. The cross marks the spot where her body and another lay imprisoned for hours. The large photograph was taken from the third floor, rear, of the Wilcox block.

With the shock of the explosion which crippled and killed over a score of human beings in that part of the Rawson Building fronting on Second street and Center Place, about 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning, the artificialities of human nature crumpled as did the swaying, splintered walls.

Men and women both were dominated for a time by the primeval passions of frenzied fear, of heroic forgetfulness of self; the cries of the injured and of their rescuers mingled in one inarticulate tone of expression.

As from the pit of a volcano sprang death. A touch of flame, a fanfare of rending timbers, the crash of glass, a rumble as of earthquake—then silence.

Speechless, terrified men and women appeared through the dust cloud like grotesque phantoms fleeing from judgment. Then voice and breath came to all—except the dead.

Accentuated by horror of the unknown cause came from that shattered building the pitiful cries of the injured. From near by came the rush of many feet. Outside the settling cloud of dust brave men hesitated before that veil of possible death. Others plunged into it with a nobler heroism than the diver in the maelstrom.

First at rescue were citizens in plain clothes. Many of them hardly waited to wipe the blood from lacerated faces, and soon all the injured who could be speedily reached were free from present danger.

Credit belongs, too, to the firemen, whose duty took them to the scene, to the police, who established order and systematized the work of rescue.

One blessing, only realized later, is the fact that the explosion came at a time when the streets and restaurants were comparatively deserted. It was just before the crowded office buildings disgorged their swarm of humanity for the noon hour.

To this alone is due the fact that there is not published today a much longer list of dead and mangled.

GAS UNDER THE FLOOR.

The explosion took place under the floor of the restaurant of B. Cressaty, No. 114 West Second street, known for years as Woodward's restaurant. The cause of the explosion is supposed to be the ignition of gas which had accumulated in the confined space under the floor.

Just how this ignition took place is not as yet absolutely verified, but it is said to have been accomplished by the striking of a match by one of the workmen sent to inspect a leak.

However that may be the explosion was of terrific force. The floor of the restaurant heaved upward with such force as to break the legs of nearly all the injured. It seemed to break off their feet and drive them up until the shin bones stuck out below the heel. The shoes of the victims were in nearly all cases torn from their feet.

In all directions was projected a rain of débris and queer freaks occurred. So great was the concussion that hundreds supposed that some earthquake had rocked the big buildings in the vicinity.

Across the street and even around the corner, heavy plate glass was smashed. Pedestrians on the street within a block were cut and bruised. Yet, strange to say, some almost within the shadow of the torn walls escaped without a scratch.

Miss Ray Calish, cashier of the restaurant, was thrown to the floor, escaped, but returned to help others, then once again escaped to the street, and, womanlike, fainted.

Miss Agnes A. Vint, of No. 1226 South Hill street, cashier in the branch office of the Anchor laundry next the restaurant, stood amid the falling walls unscathed; rushed to the door and stood again while about her crashed falling glass and débris, then rushed to Spring street, boarded a car and went home. For a time she was reported as dead.

Mrs. Tessie Graves, a waitress, was taking the orders of three men, all of whom were injured, when the explosion came. She was blown right out of the restaurant into the street, and her only injury was a cut left hand, which Dr. Lasher, of the Hollenbeck Hotel, sewed up. Then she returned to help.

Mrs. Graves, who lives at No. 207 North Broadway, had thrilling experiences during the earthquake and fire in San Francisco.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

But how did it all happen?

That is a question which thousands of people first asked when the news of the disaster became known.

According to Mr. Cressaty and Miss Calish, it was all caused by illuminating gas from the pipes of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company. They say that when they arrived at the restaurant at 8 o'clock in the morning there was an odor of gas.

Both say that they called up the offices of the gas company and complained. Miss Calish states that at least five times, as the odor of gas became stronger, she called up the gas company and demanded that it send men to stop the leak.

At last, shortly after 9 o'clock, a man came. He made a general inspection and then telephoned to the shops for assistance. Shop Foreman Charles Blumenthal, with an assistant named Rotman, put in an appearance to help Holderman, the first man, to stop the leak.

It is at this point that stories conflict. It was asserted by some of the restaurant employés who escaped that Bulmenthal or Halderman lit a match to make an inspection under the floor of the supposed leaky pipe. They had already turned off the gas at the main.

Then, they say, the explosion followed. In an exclusive statement by the gas company it is denied that a match was lit, or that the workmen were in any way responsible for the explosion. They were sufferers with others.

INSPECTOR'S FINDING.

Inspector George C. Sutton, of the Board of Fire Underwriters, was soon upon the scene of the disaster, and made a careful inspection of the ruins and—as far as possible—of its causes. To a reporter of The Times he said:

"I made a careful inspection as soon as possible and I am convinced that the explosion was caused by an accumulation of illuminating gas which became ignited in some manner unknown."

"Could enough gas accumulate to cause such a terrific explosion?" was asked.

"Yes. There was a small space under the floor of the restaurant which might easily have become filled with gas. This, if ignited, might easily have caused the catastrophe.

"At one time—oh, about three years ago—there was a gasoline gas plant in the restaurant, but at that time I ordered it taken out and I do not think another has ever been installed. If it had and I had heard of it I would have seen that it was immediately taken out.

"No. My opinion is that it was an accumulation of illuminating gas which was primarily responsible for the explosion."

The Rawson building is an old one and the gas may have been accumulating in the hollow under the floor for some time before noticed. When the first call for assistance from the restaurant came the shop was not open. Soon after 8 o'clock, when the men started work, and another call came, a man was promptly sent down.

The company states that only an electric light was used and that if it was gas which caused the explosion it was ignited by some outside agency.

Be that as it may, the suffering and sorrow are the same, and in nearly all the hospitals of the city last night doctors and nurses worked tirelessly to save life, to alleviate pain, and to cheer the spirits of those who sorrowed or despaired.

EXPERIENCES AND HEROISM.

MARVELOUS ESCAPES AND SAD INCIDENTS NOTED.

Brave Little Miss Ray Calish Helps Injured Before She Faints—Mangled Girl Thinks First of Mother—Curious Play of Human Nature in Crisis of Accident.

With one hand burned, her hair singed and the sleeve of her shirt waist ripped off above the elbow, disclosing a plump arm, Miss Ray Calish, the cashier of the ill-fated little restaurant on Second street, stood in the doorway of the crushed and torn building and calmly gave directions to the first of the rescuers arriving, and told them exactly how to get into the wrecked building and where the injured would be found. After giving this information, and being of no further use, she selected a comfortable spot and fainted.

Miss Calish stood out prominently as the heroine of the disaster of yesterday morning. She escaped a horrible death by the closest margin. She was standing at her cash desk in the front of the restaurant, directly under that portion of the roof which collapsed. When the explosion came she was hurled from her feet and rolled under a table. She scrambled out again and ran to the door, shielding her face and eyes with her arms. When she reached the street she stood still for a moment, and then, with a little cry, rushed back into the ruined building and helped two of her friends into the open.

BRAVE YOUNG WOMAN.

Three men had been seated at a table half way back in the room, and all three were pinioned under the timbers. She heard their cries and assisted one to wrench himself free of the débris. To a second she gave a PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Legislative Committee recommended to the Council yesterday that the Legislature be asked to pass a bill empowering cities to grant freight-carrying privileges to street railway companies, under proper regulations. The City Attorney said that under the present law the city cannot legally collect a license for carrying freight.

The Mayor made official denial yesterday of the report that he expects to make a change in the personnel of the Water Commission at the present time.

Alleging that the health department is honeycombed with "ward heelers and cheap politicians," the Health Board is preparing for a general renovation of the office force and the corps of inspectors.

William T. Wilson, slayer of Wallace R. Belden at Long Beach, was acquitted of the charge of murder in Judge Smith's court yesterday.

Motion for a continuance of the Besold trial was overruled yesterday. Nine jurors have been secured and a special venire has been called.

The trial of Delfin Albitre for the alleged murder of his common-law wife was reset for March 12 yesterday.

Justice Rose yesterday restored to Mrs. Florence G. Faulkner the $1500 diamond earrings which were taken from her by detectives, at the instance of H. T. Reid, on Monday afternoon. The plaintiff was censured by the court.

AT THE CITY HALL.

MAY LICENSE FREIGHT CARS.

WILL ASK THE LEGISLATURE TO AMEND STATE LAW.

"License Would Not Be Legal Under Present Statute," Says the City Attorney—Councilmen and Railway Attorneys Agree on Form of Proposed Amendment.

Freight carrying by electric lines under city supervision was formally approved yesterday by the Council Committee on Legislation. Following a conference between the Legislation Committee and the attorneys representing the local electric railways, City Attorney Hewitt was instructed to prepare a bill for presentation to the Legislature empowering cities to enter into negotiations with street railway companies for carrying freight.

Mr. Hewitt will endeavor to have this bill ready for presentation to report to the Council Friday. The recommendation of the Committee on Legislation will be that the bill shall be approved by the Council and forwarded post haste to the State Legislature. But ten days remain for introducing new bills at Sacramento.

Attorney Dunn, representing the Los Angeles and Pacific Electric railways, said that a bill drawn along the lines suggested at the conference will receive the approval of the companies he represents. Attorneys representing the Los Angeles-Pacific Company made a similar statement.

At the conference Mr. Hewitt said that under the present State law a city has not the power to compel railway companies to pay a license on freight cars. "It is the opinion of the attorney's office," said Mr. Hewitt, "that a street railway company has not the right to carry freight under a franchise such as those held by the local railway companies. So long as we hold they have not that right, it naturally follows that we cannot license them for a right that they do not possess."

Councilman Wallace made the suggestion for a State statute empowering a city to grant freight-carrying privileges under the prescribed restrictions.

"It will depend largely on the attitude of the railway interests whether we can get such a bill through the State Legislature," said Mr. Hewitt.

Mr. Dunn said that he does not believe the bill would be opposed by the railway interests. "It would not be a bill compelling the railway companies to negotiate," he said, "they could do as they like. We insist that we have a right to carry freight under our present franchises. Such a bill would not prejudice our contention, but it would make it possible for a compromise to be effected that would be legal."

Chairman Blanchard of the Legislation Committee asked the attorneys for the railway companies to prepare and present to the Council a statement of the amount of freight carried during the month of January, and the rate charged for the same.

The attorney for the Los Angeles-Pacific Company said that his company charges the tariff adopted by the Western Freight Association.

Councilmen Dromgold, Wallace, Blanchard, Clampitt, Wren and Pease took part in the conference with the railway attorneys.

All present at the conference agreed that a license on each freight car is the most satisfactory way from the city's standpoint to assess the freight-carrying privilege. "We can regulate the license from year to year," said Councilman Clampitt, "if the companies are doing well we can increase the license. In this way we should get more than we can hope to obtain by getting a cash payment for a franchise."

WATER BOARD UNCHANGED.

"NOTHING DOING," SAYS MAYOR.

Mayor Harper gave official denial yesterday to the report that he has offered places on the Water Board to either M. N. Eskey or Joseph H. Call, or that he will make any appointments at the present time replacing Commissioners Mead and Elliott.

"The Times stated my position correctly a week ago when it published that I will make no appointments for some time to come," said the Mayor. "There is no dissatisfaction over the present commissioners, and I know of no reason why there should be an immediate change.

"A couple of my friends suggested Call and Eskey to me just as a hundred other men have been suggested; I regret that their names have appeared in print; it places them in an embarrassing position, for I have never intimated to any one either intent or inclination to name either.

"Mr. Call came to see me today in company with City Attorney Hewitt, to discuss a proposed street opening. The Water Board was not mentioned."

Apparently Mayor Harper has no intention to wreck his administration at the outset by permitting politics to gain a foothold in the Water Board. He desires to see the greater portion of the Owens River conduit built during his term of office. To a friend the Mayor said yesterday:

"I would rather resign tomorrow than do anything that might injure even remotely the sale of the Owens River bonds."

"CLEAN OUT HEALTH OFFICE."

A whirlwind of discontent is sweeping the health department. Mayor Harper and the health commissioners are considering seriously whether to dismiss about half the present force of inspectors, and under-officials and replace them with new material.

"There are too many ward heelers in your department," said the Mayor to Health Officer Powers at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Health Board. "Politics is awfully nice in its place, but that place is not the health department. Civil service in certain offices about here is becoming a standing joke. It is a splendid institution when properly observed, but when it is abused it becomes damnable. In the health department it is about the limit."

The commissioners attempted to name a new assistant and a bacteriologist for the department, but it suddenly developed that the board is divided in itself over these appointments.

"If I am compelled to vote today," said the Mayor when the appointments were discussed, "I shall vote for Dr. Garcelon and for Dr. Leonard. If you wait until the next meeting I may change my mind."

With a surprising suddenness the commissioners concluded to wait until that next meeting.

For six weeks the Mayor has been chafing inwardly at the conduct of affairs in the health department. Yesterday he threw off restraint and talked out in meeting.

"Before we make any appointments," he said, "we must have an understanding that for the present Dr. Powers is health officer. There must be but one head to that department. Some of the inspectors who have carried politics into the office, who indulge in profanity and invective in the City Hall, have got to get out.

"Dr. Garcelon, the present assistant to the health officer, has your approval for reappointment, I believe, Dr. Powers."

Dr. Powers nodded his approval, wincing slightly. Plainly he had hopes in another direction.

"And Dr. Leonard, the bacteriologist, is not satisfactory to you?" went on the Mayor.

This time the health officer simply gasped. For a month he has labored to create the impression that he is taking no part in the "inner politics" of the health department. The Mayor was merciless. He repeated to the board openly what Dr. Powers had said about certain members of the department, and concluded with his expression of a desire to "clean out about half the department."

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

WITH A SIGH ACCEPTS LIFE.

WILSON IS ACQUITTED BY JURY OF MURDER CHARGE.

At Dramatic Moment Which Decides His Fate He Is Looking Into Envious Eyes of Anton Besold, Who Is Accused of Wife-Slaying—Cries of Approval Rebuked.

An impressive scene was presented in Department One of the Superior Court at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the moment of the acquittal of William T. Wilson, whose trial for murder has been proceeding for several days. As the jury filed into the courtroom the jury box in which they have been sitting was being filled by the men by whom Anton Besold is to be tried for the alleged murder of his wife.

On one side of the long table before the bench sat Besold, attentively watching the proceedings preliminary to his trial, following the jurors with his eyes as, one by one, they walked to the box as their names were called. On the other side of the table, his head back against the wall of the bench, his white face upturned, sat Wilson, whose trial was ending.

The assembling of the new jury was suspended while the Wilson jury filed in to perform its last act.

The crowd in the courtroom was breathless. Wilson turned a little whiter, but did not move nor turn his eyes toward the men who were to decide his fate. He was simply waiting, with feeble stoicism. Earl Rogers, who had put his strongest nervous energy into the defense, sat beside him, holding his hand. The attorney's head was bowed forward and his eyes were half closed. His fingers twitched.

"We find the prisoner not guilty of the crime charged."

Wilson gave a deep, tired sigh, and his head tipped forward. He was looking into the eyes of Anton Besold in the instant of deep quiet which followed the verdict. These men had met in the County Jail. This was their parting. Wilson's expression showed no change; in Besold's eyes shone brooding envy.

A moment after the verdict was rendered, the quiet was broken by applause and cries of approval. Judge Smith, in sternest mood, rebuked the violators of the dignity of court. "Mr. Bailiff," he ordered, "I wish you to find as many as possible of those disturbers and put them out." None was found.

Argument in the Wilson case was concluded at 11:40 o'clock yesterday forenoon. Asst. Dist.-Atty. McComas made a strong plea for a rigid adherence to the letter of the law in rendering a verdict, but though the jury gave him respectful attention it appeared that few were greatly affected by the argument.

BESOLD'S TRIAL BEGINS.

MOTION FOR DELAY DENIED.

Claiming to have letters which showed that important evidence for the defense of Anton Besold, who is charged with the murder of his wife, Cladie Besold, could be secured if time was given, Attorney A. A. Sturges, who has charge of the defence, yesterday made a motion for continuance until March 11. The motion was denied by Judge Smith, and an order to proceed with the trial was given.

Nine jurors had been accepted at 4:20 o'clock, when court was adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning. The term trial panel had been exhausted, and a special venire of twenty was ordered, returnable at the opening of court today.

One of the letters received by Attorney Sturges is from a lodging-house-keeper in St. Louis, in whose house Anton and Cladie Besold stayed in 1905. The writer, Hattie Arnott, states that Mrs. Besold declared an intention of committing suicide, and on one occasion attempted to take poison. Mrs. Arnott declares that Mrs. Besold always carried a revolver, and more than once spoke of shooting herself.

The other letter is from Henkinson, N. D., offering testimony as to Besold's good behavior while in the bakery business in that place.

NEW COUNSEL APPOINTED.

Delfin Albitre, who is charged with the murder of his common law wife, Francisco Ramirez, at Monrovia, September 2, was brought into the criminal court yesterday morning. His case was reset for trial on March 12. Albitre is held without bonds in the County Jail.

H. H. Appel, who was appointed by the court to defend Albitre, has withdrawn from the case. R. C. Noleman was appointed yesterday in his stead. The accused is without funds.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

DAMAGES AWARDED. J. H. Nonnemaker, whose suit for damages against the Los Angeles Railway Company was begun Monday in Department Four of the Superior Court, was awarded $1500 yesterday. He had asked for $7500.

INJUNCTION ASKED. A complaint was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday asking an injunction against the Edison Electric Company, to restrain it from further trespass on the property of the plaintiff, Hugh Glassell, owner of a part of the rancho San Rafael. It is charged that the company has been excavating and putting in iron foundations for steel masts, to carry wires for the transmission of electricity, on the property of the plaintiff.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

HER DIAMONDS ARE RETURNED.

MRS. FAULKNER PROVES HER RIGHT TO THEM.

Reid, at Whose Instance She Was Deprived of Gems, Is Censured in Police Court for Using Search Warrant as Civil Process—Chowder House Story.

Justice Rose decided the Faulkner diamond case yesterday by returning to Mrs. Florence G. Faulkner the $1500 earrings which had been taken from her by detectives, at the instance of H. T. Reid.

Incidentally the plaintiff was scored for using a search warrant as a civil process, the court holding that Reid had virtually perjured himself in stating in his affidavit for a warrant that he believed that the stones had been stolen. Reid had to pay the costs. According to his own statement in court, his claim on the stones was of a purely civil nature.

The diamond earrings originally belonged to Mrs. Mary Meckfessel, who pawned them in San Francisco. Mrs. Faulkner secured the stones, she said, by advancing money on them.

Infirmities Save Hoffman.

C. H. Hoffman's eighty-five years, his palsy and his blindness saved him from prosecution for battery in Judge Rose's court yesterday. The charge was preferred by Mrs. Venn, who alleged that he had struck her on the head with a tin pail, inflicting a bad cut.

Disturbs Chowder House.

The case of R. A. Page, who is accused of disturbing the peace at Jim's Chowder House, was going on in Justice Chambers's court yesterday when the chowder house went out of business because of the Second-street explosion and Lieut. Charles Dixon, one of the principal witnesses, was summoned on a hurry-up call to the scene of the accident. Page was sentenced to $20 or twenty days. He was one of the principal performers in a three-cornered fight. Incidentally the court took occasion to remark on the waiters' habit of using black jacks.

The officers explained that the character of some of the guests of the chowder house necessitated these weapons. They also said, in justification of the waiters, that should a man happen into Jim's Chowder House and mind his own business he would not be "slugged."

COAL COMPANIES MERGE.

LANDER (Wyo.) Feb. 13.—The Hudson Coal Company has secured control of every producing mine in the center of the State. The mines are along the new line of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad and include even the mines upon the unceded portion of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indian reservations, which have all been leased to the Hudson company. The company officially announces it will immediately begin exploiting all the territory.

Charles W. Morse of New York yesterday announced that he had purchased a controlling interest in the Ward line of steamers to Cuba and Mexico.

for him. Allen held on until both were in front of the chief. Then he let go quickly and only in time to save his star. The chief ordered him back to his post and told him in forceful language to obey orders and not attempt to go over the rulings of the police commission.

HELD UP COMMISSIONER.

A laughable incident occurred shortly after this when Police Commissioner Woodill attempted to pass the lines. He was curtly told to disappear in the other direction and not to come around "butting in" where serious business was on hand. Mr. Woodill fished in his pockets a moment and while the policeman watched him curiously Woodill pinned his gold star on his lapel and walked thoughtfully past the bluecoat, who was standing at attention by this time.

While the workers were wrestling with the débris there appeared immediately in the midst of the workers an Italian woman carrying a baby in her arms. Where she had come from or how she had passed the lines no one knew. She was plaintively crying that she wanted to find her husband who was a bootblack and had a stand in the restaurant.

She was Mrs. C. Pirri. She had been standing in the dangerous location but a moment when a little undersized black-faced man who had been tugging bravely at the wreckage, bounded to her side and grabbed both baby and mother in a great hug. Every one looked away while he poured out in soft Italian words how he had not been injured, and how he was working to help out the more unfortunate. The woman dried her eyes, and with a smile on her face, hurried away.

BLOWN OUT OR UP.

H. L. Yerger, who had a tailoring shop on the corner of the alleyway, was sitting at his desk facing a window when the explosion came. There was a puff and a roar, and Yerger found himself seated in the alleyway with face blackened by the explosion, but otherwise uninjured.

On the second floor of the brick building great havoc was wrought. The force of the explosion seemed to go upward. J. F. McElheney, who had a printing establishment on the second floor, had a close escape from death. He said that he was standing in the center of the floor when, without warning, the floor seemed to fly up around him, and the next fraction of a second came the deafening roar of the explosion.

He was hurled against the ceiling. When he fell again there was no floor to catch him, and he plunged through to the bottom where the great mass of débris lay. He was scarcely scratched and was able to walk out of the structure.

NOTIFIES COMPANY.

B. Cressaty, proprietor of the restaurant, said that he had called up the gas company first at 6 o'clock in the morning when he first smelt the odor of gas. "I called up again in a half hour, as the oder was becoming stronger," he continued, "but I could get no satisfaction. I called up altogether six times, each time something was said about sending some one up in a short time. Finally, about 9:30, one employé came and looked over the place and then called up the company and asked for an assistant.

"When the second man came there was little progress made. The odor of gas was very strong. Finally the men turned off the gas at the meter, and fussed around until shortly before 11 o'clock. I noticed my hands being all smudged and I stepped into the next door to wash them. I had just taken off my coat when the explosion came. I rant into my restauarnt and all was a mass of débris. People were shouting and groaning and the walls were falling on all sides.

"I do not know what set off the fumes, but some one told me that one of the employés of the gas company lighted a match to examine the break in the gas pipes more closely. The gas had been turned off prior to this, but there was so much in the room that the first flame ignited it all."

SHOES BLOWN OFF DEAD AND INJURED.

FREAKISH things were done by this explosion. The shoes of every person taken from the ruins were found to have been blown off their feet.

One of the most appealing things found in the wreckage was a little tan oxford tie torn from some woman's foot; the shoe strings were still tied.

Deputy Coroner Jack Adams states that every one of the injured as well as the dead were found in their stocking feet.

A napkin and a table cloth—with the stains of breakfast still on them—were blown to the ceiling of the restaurant and are still clinging to the tattered lathing.

Way over in one corner of the ceiling was the torn débris of a chair that had been hurled from the floor and stuck among the shattered timber overhead—literally imbedded in the plaster and woodwork.

FEARFUL DEATH SUDDEN.

The whole weight of the second story of the building crushed down upon the little French waitress, La Von Meyer, crushing her life out. Her poor little shattered body was found pinned under one corner of the avalanche of timber, plaster and lathing.

The old woman, Annie Crawford, was found buried in plaster and rubbish over against one of the walls; she had been suffocated to death.

The ghastly work of digging out the dead bodies was screened from the human harpies who fought the police to see all the grewsome sights.

Only those in the ruins and those in the windows of the buildings adjoining saw the tearing away of the débris.

The little French girl's body was not found for more than four hours.

It was desperately hard work. The firemen and men from the street department, messenger boys and politicians tugged side by side at the long grappling rope until their faces were black and streaked with sweat and dust, and their clothes ruined.

THE FIERY FIREMAN.

Some of the firemen had their clothes almost torn from their bodies. One man was there in citizen's clothes. He worked so furiously that the spectators almost broke into cheers several times. He made débris fly like an excited rat terrier in an old clothes bag.

His derby hat was caved in on side; his shirt was protruding from a barn-door tear in his trousers and the rest of him was in tatters. "Clothes," he said, wiping the sweat from his face and plunging back into the ruins. "Oh, to hell with the clothes."

Chamberlain is his name; he is a driver of Engine Company No. 9; he was starting out in his finest togs for a day off when the alarm came in. He worked there all day long, doing as much as any other two.

Another picturesque feature of the working gang was a dark young fellow with blazing eyes. He had a big fireman's ax and tore through the débris like mad, climbing into perilous places from which policemen's warnings did not turn him. This one was Kid Solomon, the lightweight pug who works in the street department.

THE SLAUGHTER PEN.

The place in which they worked was a little slaughter pen. One side had been the restaurant kitchen; on the other, the tailor shop.

The roof had fallen down at one side, forming a long slide down which poured tons of débris into the little pen beneath.

In the very middle of the big pile of rubbish and glaring out from heaps of plaster, restaurant splinters, tattered remnants of tailors goods was a calendar with a big "13" peering up defiantly at the workers.

High up on the wall, where the second story had been, hung a natty umbrella. It looked tragically ridiculous. As though any one looking on at this, could bother about being rained on.

From the printing office above, a show copy of Tennyson's "Princess" teetered unevenly at the very edge where half the floor had fallen away and finally slid down into the ruins just over the spot where the girl was found.

ONE FORLORN HOPE.

For hours before she was dug up, a little patch of her gown could be seen under the edge of the fallen flooring.

With the forlorn hope that some miracle might have been wrought to keep her alive, they worked frantically to get the débris away from this spot.

Again and again the big grappling hook was made fast by the firemen and a long line of queerly-assorted men, some in rags and some in tags and some in glad attire, grabbed hold and "Yo, ho-he-ho-ed" it out into the alley, where a long line of wagons from the street department were waiting to lug away the rubbish.

Finally a young fireman with a long queer-shaped fire ax stood just over the spot where the girl was buried and began cutting down with keen, accurate strokes.

At last he fell on his knees and began scraping away the plaster with his hands and all the others crowded about.

"Gee, I hope she's alive," one of them breathed out of the depths of his soul.

"How could she be alive after four hours with a building on her head?" said the policeman on guard.

PATHOS IN DEATH.

The overwrought nerves of the loafer were stung. "Damnation! I s'pose I ain't hurting anything if I just hope she's alive. It don't cost much just for a hope," he snapped back with hot excited eyes.

Presently the crowd fell back around the young fireman and he gradually dragged her slight girlish figure from the mass of rubbish.

One of her arms was raised as though to avert a blow. Her young face was a bloody mass of wounds and gashes; something in her appearance, as the fireman carried her gently in his arms and laid her in the long wicker basket, suggested riquancy, however, and youth and—bitter pathos.

As they laid her in the dead box, a very elaborate gilded back comb dropped from her hair among the rubbish as though she no longen had any use for that.

You could not help feeling glad to think that the poor little waitress had been recklessly extravagant enough to have bought that and let us hope that no one had so pretty a one and that she got great pride out of it while she could.

ANOTHER BODY FOUND.

The body of the old woman was found very soon after that.

At the time of this second discovery, the firemen were madly hacking away at a section of flooring that completely covered part of the débris.

"Some one's alive here," came a cry. There was a rush toward the south wa... and the tired-out firemen felt the strength of desperation come back to them as they tore out the mess of stuff from the wall.

First came an old face, crowned with gray hair. At first it was hard to say if it were a man's or a woman's face. They thought it must be the old janitor who worked there in the building.

As the plaster and dirt fell away from the body as the firemen lifted it, a woman's white shirt waist was disclosed.

The old woman's skirt had been completely torn off and, like the others, she was shoeless, showing the tremendous upward heave of the explosion.

They carried her over and laid her in a wicker basket like the one in which the young waitress was resting.

$92,184.00 Worth of Pianos In Fifty-One Days

Marvelous Prosperity of Los Angeles as Indicated by the Large Sale of Pianos at the Leading Music House

There is no better indication of the prosperity of a community than the sale of the so-called luxuries of life. People buy groceries because they must live—they buy clothing and furniture because of necessity—they buy pianos because they are prosperous.

In the past few years Los Angeles has developed many great mercantile institutions in the way of dry goods stores, department stores, furniture stores, etc. That this city is fostering a great piano business is evidenced by the fact that the Wiley B. Allen Company, 416-418 South Broadway, have sold nearly $100,000 worth of pianos in less than two months. The actual figures are 345 pianos aggregating $92,184.00 in just 51 days.

One remarkable feature of this great volume of business is the large number who bought the most expensive makes, such as the Knabe, Mason & Hamlin, Packard, Ludwig, Fischer, Knabe-Angelus, Emerson-Angelus and Kingsbury Player.

A visit to this house where nearly an acre of pianos is exhibited is well worth one's while.

Mr. S. A. Brown, manager, reports an unusually large business at all of this firm's stores on the coast, but Los Angeles leads in the number of sales in proportion to the population of the various cities.

CAUSE OF EXPLOSION ATTRIBUTED TO GAS.

THE cause of the explosion which wrecked a restaurant, tailor shop, laundry office, printing shop, Jim's Chowder House and part of the Rawson building on Second street, at Center Place, apparently was illuminating gas, which leaked from a defective pipe of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company.

At the same time it is asserted, and there is apparently some ground for the supposition, that the explosion was caused by the fumes from the ammonia pipes of the Cold Storage Company, which supplied a restaurant refrigerator. These ammonia fumes were so strong a short time after the explosion as to almost overcome a number of newspaper men and rescuers at work among the ruins.

There is still another possible cause, according to some of those who have investigated. It is the accumulation of fire damp. This explosive is held to be responsible in Los Angeles for a number of minor explosions in sewers and conduits, and it is stated that it might easily have accumulated under the old building, where the explosion took place, and been ignited by workmen seeking for a gas leak.

Just as to whether there was a gas leak will be hard to officially determine because of the alleged fact that soon after the explosion workmen from the gas company took away the meter, which is said to have leaked, and the pipes under the floor, which are also said to have leaked.

But whatever the cause, it will be for the Coroner and a jury to determine.

COMPANY SHIFTS BLAME.

Following is the only official statement given out by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company. It was dictated for The Times by Manager of Operation C. S. Vance last evening:

"After a most thorough and exhaustive examination of all the gas pipes we have found no gas leaks. If it was illuminating gas, why did not the building take fire?

"The first complaint came in between 8 and 9 o'clock. H. A. Holderman, complaint man, was sent to the restaurant about 10 o'clock. He telephoned back to Charles J. Blumenthal, shop foreman, and requested that some one be sent to aid him in locating what the trouble was. Blumenthal took M. E. Rotman and went to the building with him. He was not able to determine what the trouble was and being an old and experienced gas man he sent Rotman back to the shop for a little pocket electric flashlight.

"These lights are the latest improved electric lamps known to gas men for these purposes. Rotman got the lamp and delivered it to Blumenthal a few minutes before the explosion took place.

REFUTES STATEMENT.

"This clearly refutes the statement which has been made that Blumenthal struck a match. It is absolutely impossible for one of these flashlights to ignite any gas.

"The amount of illuminating gas necessary to have caused such a wreck would have been so great that no human being could have entered the building and survived asphyxiation for three minutes. But had it been ammonia gas, distillate fumes or fire damp a person could have stood it for a much longer period of time, and the odors from ammonia, gas or distillate fumes would have been somewhat similar to illuminating gas.

FOURTEEN THOUSAND.

MONETARY LOSS NOT HEAVY.

The property loss is not great, as fortunately neither fire nor water entered into the calamity, and for the same reason no insurance can be collected.

The rear portion of the old Rawson Block, in which the explosion occurred, is a total wreck, and, though the front portion of the building on Second street is still intact, it is more than probable that the whole will have to be torn down. The property belongs to Thomas Higgins, and H. W. Lewis is the agent. The latter would not listen to a lower estimate than $10,000 for the loss on the buildings, but as they were very old and of cheap construction, Lewis's estimate is probably at the outside limit.

The losses of tenants in personal property, as claimed by themselves, is as follows: Cressaty's restaurant, $800; Jim's Chowder House, $1000; H. L. Yerger, merchant tailor, said that his loss, including the value of a lease, would be $2000, but that the damage to goods and fixtures is but a few hundred dollars; J. F. McElhany, printer, on the second floor, also suffers a loss of a few hundred dollars.

on the basis of 500% estimated profits. This land is located in a frostless belt where oranges, grapes and other fruits ripen six weeks ahead of the Southern California crops. The soil itself is of three distinct types which will give us three distinct classes of buyers, namely: fruit growers, agriculturists, and truck gardeners. If we could make public in this announcement the actual price at which we purchased the land, its locality, its transportation facilities, markets, etc., you would know at a glance that we have a very unusual project and one that is absolutely safe and sure of success. We can sell this land at lower prices than is charged for adjacent property and we still make the immense profits shown by our careful calculations.

$50,000 is required immediately—nearly the whole amount has been subscribed; there is still an opportunity for investors to subscribe amounts of $500 to $5000. We are investing our own money but cannot handle the whole tract, which includes over 10,000 acres of the best land in Central California.

Come to our office for full particulars. We can show you that a profit of 500% is very conservative and therefore is assured.

"Good morrow, 'tis St. Valentine's Day."

When society takes a rest it gives everybody else a rest.

An explosion in a restaurant makes hash of pretty much everything.

It is coming to pass that it is more dangerous to live in a city than to go to war.

The Japanese newspapers are making fun of Hobson. And still this country refuses to fight.

It is the season of penitence, but the devil is hanging out around the edges. He expects to be called back.

It is strange that Mr. Roosevelt is never tired, in view of all that is happening to make any man tired.

Nobody knows what the future contains and there are few of us who care to think of what the past contains.

The Japanese are willing to be called Asiatics, but not Mongolians. Well, if that suits them, we have no kick coming.

Fame is a poor thing to run after. There are at least a billion people in this world who have never heard of Abe Ruef.

The almond trees have started the procession of blossoms that will now make California of the South next door to heaven.

The case of Harry Thaw is demonstrating that it is not so much what money can do for a man as it is what it can do to him.

You might as well send your enemy a comic Valentine today. Somebody will send him one and he will blame you for it, anyway.

When a politician announces that he is "in the hands of his friends" that's a good time for his friends to keep their hands in their pockets.

Mr. Guggenheim represents copper in the Senate. The impression that he represents Colorado is said to be a mere error of the mind.

Sackcloth and ashes will be the style for the next six weeks. And it is because they are the style that a great many people will put them on.

The New York Commercial says the men selected as jurors in the Thaw case have become famous. Who are they? What are their names?

A street-car conductor was mobbed in San Francisco the other day. There are a few in Los Angeles that might be the better, too, for a few good kicks.

If a man can conveniently go crazy every time he desires to commit murder, then crazy men will have to take their chances of the rope the same as other people.

The London Times says America ought to be proud of "Mr. Dooley." We are. He seems to have been able to make the English understand an American joke.

True, Mr. Cleveland will receive $25,000 in his new job with the insurance companies. But was he wise to accept? He must remember that he can't go fishing every day now.

It has been figured that it will require 123 years for a Congressman to become a millionaire on his salary. And yet Congressmen manage to become millionaires, just the same.

The Chinese do not make resolutions when their new year comes around. They are a busy people and couldn't find the spare time to break the resolutions after they had been made.

If United States Senators were elected by a direct vote of the people, it would make matters a little harder for the railroads, of course, but it would also result in taking the blame away from the Legislature.

There must be something wrong about the statement that Brazil is discouraged because she is $6,000,000 in debt. Brazil can pay that out of a couple of months' work of one of her second-class gold mines.

All danger of a war with Japan will now soon pass away. The thing to do before the next scare comes up is to put ourselves in such a position that Japan couldn't go to war against us even if she wanted to.

That we will always have more or less trouble with Japan is a matter that should be faced cheerfully. The way the world is constituted, everybody is bound to have more or less trouble with everybody else.

Mayor Schmitz may as well understand now as at any time that the fact that he has patched up peace between Japan and the United States cannot be introduced in the evidence when his trial for graft comes up.

A Spanish soldier who took a shot at President Roosevelt in the battle of Kettle Hill is to make a call at the White House, and the chances are that he will be more cordially received by the President than Foraker, Tillman and those other fellows who have also taken shots at him.

THE PEACE OF NINETY YEARS.

When Hon. Elihu Root, our distinguished Secretary of State, was recently in Canada he called attention to the fact that we have lived at peace with Our Lady of the Snows for the past ninety years. Evidently the statement impressed the Canadians, for a member of the government arose in the Ottawa Parliament the other day and proposed that a big jubilee be held next year to commemorate this long friendship between the two countries, unstained as it is with either blood or dishonor.

It is to be hoped that the idea will be prosecuted to a successful outcome. The spectacle of Canada and the United States celebrating peace instead of the victories of war could not fail to leave a lasting influence on the sentiment of all the world. If Canada will lead in the matter there can be no doubt that this country will gladly second her efforts to the end that the celebration may be brought about.

There are those who say that war is a necessity, and this exposition would be the answer to such a fallacy. There are those who say that the United States is greedy and overbearing, and this would be the answer to that and to every other falsehood of the kind. In all ways the idea is to be commended.

Why should not Canada and the United States do as Chile and Argentina have done—erect a statue of the Prince of Peace on the boundary line that divides the two countries? The lessons of peace are the lessons that should be impressed on the world and taught to the generations of the future.

DOWN A MORAL NIAGARA.

The Legislature of Iowa is reported to be considering an act providing for probationary marriage. The purpose of this bill (which probably will die an early death) is to permit men and women to make marriage contracts for the term of five years, renewable at the end of that period provided both parties to the contract agree. If either party has changed his mind as to the desirability of the partnership, the man and woman may drift apart to contract another five-year-period marriage, one with another woman and the other with another man.

Compared with this Iowa dream, Utah really stands out in conspicuous boldness for the high moral plane on which the marriage relations are placed by the Mormons. However objectionable polygamy may be, however contrary to our ideas of the marital relations and of the influences of singular marriage as a conservative force in morals and civilization, Mormonism is clean, elevated, conservative and safe in comparison with this Iowa proposition.

The man or the woman who will stop long enough to hear his heart think for five minutes cannot escape the conclusion that not in one case out of a hundred would such marriage contracts be renewed at the end of five years. The brute in man is just as sure to assert itself as his appetite for food is. The very possibility of severing his relations with a woman at the end of five years would bring about conditions in their lives which would terminate the contract at the end of the period established by law. With the woman it would be somewhat different. Like the overripe peach, the downy bloom rubbed off, she would only be taken at a bargain sale. The woman is more likely than the man to have her affections involved in a marriage contract and her affections are much more likely to be lasting in their quality. Byron is exactly right in his saying, "Love is of man's life a thing apart, 'tis a woman's whole existence."

But what about the children? The greatest argument of all in favor of monogamous marriages and of making the contract for the life of both parties is the necessity of this arrangement for the proper training and education of the offspring resulting from such unions. This has been the most forcible argument used against lax divorce laws. The argument grows out of experience. Since divorces have become so easily obtainable in certain States of the Union, the children have been cast adrift upon society in swarms. With a legalizing of probationary marriages covering a period of five years, there would result a condition as regards the children absolutely appalling. With two or three little ones born in the course of this five-year period, were the contract allowed to terminate by its own limitations, no law could be framed which will guarantee the proper care and the proper education of these children.

To bring up boys and girls in a State where such marriage relations are sanctified by law would seem to be an intolerable contingency for decent men and women to face. Of course the proposed act is the work of he-bipeds. The women of Iowa have not been consulted. We believe they will be heard from and that the bill never will be enacted.

GOOD SENSE OF THE CLERGY.

The ministers of Providence, Rhode Island, show that they are worthy scions of the Puritan sires who crossed the Atlantic in an open boat and founded the commonwealth of New England on the stern and rockbound coast along the Atlantic. They show that they have some of the grit of the old Roundheads who fought King Charles and the Cavaliers and saved the kingdom of England from being turned backward into the Middle Ages.

These ministers of Providence, in a meeting held on Tuesday, spoke unequivocally against the Miss Nancyism which proposes to suppress the news of the Thaw trial. These men are ministers of Providence in a double sense. Besides being from the New England town, they are standing for divine Providence, whose ministers they claim to be. One of their number expresses the sense of all when he says: "I feel that I should be making a consummate fool of myself if I favored suppressing that testimony. The perusal of it cannot fail to have a strong moral effect upon every one and to impress upon the minds of old and young alike the necessity of a proper mode of living. As to its being read by young girls, it seems to us that the effect cannot be otherwise than to teach them the utmost care of their habits of life and in their thought. The trial and testimony are one of the best illustrations yet presented of the certainty of 'as ye sow, so shall ye also reap.' The effect cannot be lost."

It would be nonsense to suppress a proper recital of this terrible story. Its sole and only effect upon the mind can be one of revulsion and disgust. No person of proper views has read one line of that story without feeling a thrill of horror that young girls should be exposed to such temptations by the direct intervention of their mothers, and a disgust that young men should be so indulged and pampered by foolish mothers and that men with the veneer of gentlemen upon them worn by Stanford White should pass muster for one minute in decent society. There is no girl whose heart will not shudder as she thinks of the fate of Evelyn Thaw. There is nothing in the news that has any glamour of fascination. It is simply shocking and revolting. Let the world have it, and the world in the end will be cleaner for it.

JOHNNIE AND HIS TIN SOLDIERS.

Boston is certainly worthy of its notoriety as the most fruitful soil on earth for the birth and maturity of new notions. Here we have Lucia Ames Meade of the Hub tearing a passion into rags over the tin soldiers with which little boys and girls amuse themselves before they become large enough to spin tops or shoot marbles.

Mrs. Meade, with all seriousness and apparent earnestness, assures the mothers of Israel that their children are being utterly destroyed by being permitted to play at war with tin soldiers and toy cannon. This Bostonese dame asks, "Why do you permit the boy whom you hope will become a fine gentleman to pretend that he is killing people and to cut whole platoons of infantry down?"

It is just as well for Mrs. Meade and other ranting females to remember that the millennium is far, far away, even from us of the twentieth century. American children have played with tin soldiers and toy cannon and have made the air resonant with firecrackers on the Fourth of July time out of mind. As tin soldiers have become effete toys for them in their more mature development, these American boys have turned to baseball, football and even firearms as their chief source of amusement. Away back in the Revolutionary War, when American boys of maturer years had to play, not with tin soldiers and toy cannon, nor even Quaker guns, but to meet in battle array the hired Hessians of Great Britain with real guns and powder and ball, the familiarity of the Americans with firearms was found to have been a great advantage on the field of battle. These colonists had learned to shoot bears and wolves as well as jack rabbits and quail while galloping through the woods on horseback, and the familiarity with firearms stood them in good stead.

America wants today in peace and in war men, not dandies. It is all very well to be a fine gentleman, but first of all America must raise men. Some of the best we have ever had in the country would hardly shine in ballrooms. They were right doughty soldiers where it took red blood to maintain courage in the heart and they were but little distinguished as carpet knights. Our industries, our enterprises, as well as the possibility of being called to meet a hostile invading foe, demand courage and not dilettanteism.

We are glad to see that Mayor Harper denies the report that he will appoint M. N. Eskey and Joseph H. Call on the Board of Water Commissioners. Such appointments would do no less than defeat the sale of the water bonds and balk the city's great enterprise. That the Mayor would commit such a blunder is incredible. He would raise the financial world in arms against the bonds by so doing.

THOUSAND BY TELEPHONE.

First Woman to so Help the Y.W.C.A. Building Campaign Heard from Yesterday.

Previously reported, $45,000; Miss Bettina Brown, $1000; Mrs. Robert Hale, $1000. Total, $47,000. Balance to be raised, $103,000. This is the story to date of the Y.W.C.A. quick-building campaign.

The first woman to use a telephone to give $1000 to the Y.W.C.A building fund was Mrs. Robert Hale, wife of a real estate dealer, who called up the association headquarters yesterday and casually informed the secretary that she wished to give that amount toward the cause. Another entered the "famous one hundred" class yesterday. She was Miss Bettina Brown of Angeleno Heights, who also gave her pledge for $1000. This makes twenty-eight who have contributed $1000 each.

Campaign workers feel very grateful to several of the leading merchants of the city who have agreed to give their advertising space in the daily papers for one day to give publicity to the cause.

Yesterday saw the inauguration of this feature with the Coulter Dry Goods Company giving their advertising space in the dailies, which was filled with information of the new building campaign written by Miss Frances Holmes.

To further extend the publicity work letters are to be sent out broadcast from headquarters to persons who otherwise could not be brought in touch with the campaign. This is an untried field, and large results are looked for.

STILL WORKING.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER.

Green's Germ Crusade.

James Green was quite a timid man, and careful of his health.
He shuddered when he read of how bacilli came by stealth
And robbed a man of everything, as burglars take his wealth.

He went and saw a specialist who then explained to him
The slyness of the germs that grab a man with impulse grim
And feed and feast and frolic till they've put him out of trim.

The doctor said that millions were collected by the shoes—
James Green at once discarded all the footgear he would use.
(The chilblain germ then hurried in; it had no time to lose!)

The doctor told him that the germs would settle on his hair;
In less than half an hour his scalp was shaven bleak and bare
And nothing but a bald expanse of bumps was left him there.

Green's whiskers with alacrity from off his face were cleared—
Although this showed that both his jaws in lanternwise were geared.

The doctor warned him as to clothes, and warned him of his hat,
And warned him of the walls and floors within his little flat,
And of the bed wherein he slept and chairs whereon he sat.

The doctor put his ban upon the foodstuffs that Green ate.
He told Green that in drinking milk or tea he tempted fate.
That water, coffee, beer or ale concealed an awful fate.

So Green had all his walls and floors made of a glassy glare,
And sat him down to ponder on what sort of stuff to wear,
When suddenly the doctor counted all the germs in air!

James Greel arose in wrathful mood and cried: "I cannot drink, I cannot dress, or eat, or smoke, or write with pen and ink,
And next I know you'll warn me that there's germs in what I think!"

He let his whiskers grow again, he coaxed back all his hair,
He sent and got his furniture, and bought some clothes to wear,
And stocked his pantry till he had much food and drink to spare.

The doctor sent a bill that filled James Green with painful squirms;
And took the money, which was simply packed with awful germs!

If Nobody Sees You Drop.

You step on a banana peel, you stumble in the snow,
Or in a dozen other ways your feet may upward go—
You scoot around and slam about and try to keep erect,
You twist and squirm and jerk and jump, but that has no effect,
And finally you loose all holds and with a whacking sound
You flatten out until you feel you've shaken all the ground.

But when you scramble to your feet you think that after all,
It doesn't matter half so much if no one saw you fall.

And all through life it's much the same as walking on the street—
Temptation spreads banana peels to tangle up your feet, Temptation drifts a little snow until
'tis white and nice
Above a glaring sheet of smooth and mighty slippery ice.
Sometimes you manage to pull through, but other times you fail
And come down with a force that would break up a coat of mail.

And then Old Man Remorse is twice as wide and big and tall,
If there were lots of other folks who chanced to see you fall.

The One-Sided Conflict.

The pale faced youth, whose freckles were accentuated by his pallor, strode moodily along the quiet street, muttering to himself.

"I'll show you," he said, malevolently. He stopped in his tracks and glared at the peaceful atmosphere before him.

"Haven't I told you not to come snoopin' around my girl?" he demanded, significantly, his eyes flashing.

For a moment he scowled at the air, then he shook his forefinger threateningly.

"You keep on shinin' up to Lizzie Jones, an' I'll punch your peaky head," he growled, clenching his fists.

"Huh!" he ejaculated, as though some one had said something to him. "What's that? Just you say that again!"

He sidestepped quickly, dropped his head to one side and peered through half closed eyelids.

"You'll go with her as much as you please, will you? I've got something to say about that!"

He lowered his head, humped his shoulders, and shot his chin out aggressively as he went on:

"I'll jam you one on the ear in a minute that'll make you think a cyclone has hit you, George Hanford."

With a quick spring he went back two feet, then laughed derisively.

"That's your game, is it?" he asked tauntingly. "You'd better go somewhere and learn to fight. I'll knock the everlasting daylight out o' you first thing you know."

Solemnly and silently he tiptoed about in a circle, his head cocked weirdly inward. Suddenly he let one fist fly forward.

"Take that!" he muttered. "How'd you like that? Huh! There!"

He shot the other fist out so forcibly that he puffed half his breath out with it. Then he whirled his arms wildly and jumped forward and put in an uppercut that would have broken every tooth in the jaw of an opponent.

"You will try to cut me out, huh!" he hissed, with a vicious left hander. "You will, hey? Then take your medicine."

A right and left jab, a pivot blow and another uppercut followed. The youth's eyes were glittering and his lips worked convulsively.

"Bloodied your nose, did I? Well, how's this?"

He banged his right fist into the air and followed it with his left.

"Now both your eyes will match, dog gone you! Hold on, there! Don't you try to trip me!"

He spread his arms, brought them together, struggled violently about the sidewalk and finally fell to the ground. There he rose to his knees as though pinioning some one with them, and methodically and desperately pounded the ground with his fists, saying:

"Take that! I'll show you! How's that feel? Want to steal my girl, do you? You ain't so blamed pretty now, are you? Huh!"

While he was beating the imaginary face to an imaginary pulp and gloating over his imaginary butchery, another young man came around the corner, with a girl hanging to his arm.

"Why, there's John!" exclaimed the girl.

"What you doin' down there, John?" asked the other youth.

"Hello George. Hello Lizzie," said John, looking embarrassed; "I was just lookin' for something I dropped here a minute ago."

The couple passed on, and John continued his futile search for the something he said he had dropped, until they turned the next corner. Then he arose, dusted off his knees, and shook his fist in their direction, and said:

"You don't know how near you come to gettin' a blamed good lickin', George Hanford!"

Harriman's Schams.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 12.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Apropos of your leading article on Mr. Harriman's money-making schemes and railroad manipulation, I would like to make a few remarks. You state, that he has raised the gross earnings of the Union Pacific from $34,294,729 to $47,241,545, and thereby enabled the road to divide a net income of $29,201,844 in place of only $15,672,290. Because of this increased dividend (which he kept secret until he had bought up all the shares he could) he was able to scoop up a clear profit of $10,000,000, as you say by the rise in value of the Union Pacific stock. This value belonged of right to the [illegible] morally (if not [illegible] their shares [illegible] sell in ignorance [illegible] trusted position [illegible] earned for them [illegible]

What I wish to [illegible] Mr. Harriman [illegible] "competitor." [illegible] any time depress [illegible] line, and [illegible] of that line and [illegible] of the other line, [illegible] value of these [illegible] go up or down [illegible] to suit his own [illegible]

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

BUSCH AND WIFE AT "IVY WALL."

MILLIONAIRE BREWER REACHES PASADENA HOME.

He Stands Trip Well but Is Assisted from Train to Carriage. Resident Pays Fine for Auto Speeding and Then Concludes That He Didn't Violate Ordinance.

Office of The Times, No. 28 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Feb. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Busch and their daughter, Mrs. Magnus, arrived here last night in their private car, "Adolphus," over the Southern Pacific route. The car reached the city at 9 o'clock and Mr. Busch was at once driven to his home on Orange Grove avenue.

Considering the state of his health Mr. Busch stood the journey remarkably well although he had to be assisted from the train to his carriage. It is felt that a few days of complete rest will restore him to health however. Mrs. Busch appeared to be in the best of health and seemed to have thoroughly recovered from the effects of her late illness.

In anticipation of the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Busch "Ivy Wall" the Busch residence on South Orange Grove avenue had been put in readiness.

TANGLE OF FINES.

After being found guilty to the charge of violating the speed ordinance and paying his $15 fine W. W. McGregory of West California street yesterday afternoon made the discovery that he had overlooked the most important point in his defense namely the fact that he was not the man who had broken the ordinance.

When arrested McGregory insisted that he could not have broken the ordinance and that the arresting officer must have made a mistake as he averred that his automobile was out of order and could not make the speed claimed. He furthermore thought that he must have been at home at the time that the alleged offense was committed but he was unable to swear to the fact. After paying his money he discussed the case with his wife who suddenly called his attention to the fact that the number of the machine which the speed violator was driving was the same car which Mr. McGregory sold six months ago. Then the light dawned upon him and he called upon Judge McDonald. The case will probably be reopened.

TWO HURT IN RUNAWAY.

Mrs. James Andrews McCreary a wealthy eastern woman visiting here was one of the victims in a serious runaway accident yesterday morning and in consequence may be confined to her rooms for several days. In company with a friend she was driving on Colorado street when the horse, a high-strung animal, took fright at a passing car and bolted. The two women were thrown to the pavement and sustained severe bruises though it is not thought that either sustained internal injuries.

Witnesses of the accident state that but for the presence of mind which Mrs. McCreary exhibited, when the horse bolted, the mishap might have had a fatal ending. The driver is an accomplished horsewoman however, and, when she saw that the maddened animal was beyond control, she exerted all of her strength toward keeping out of the way of passing street cars.

FOR BRICK SIDEWALKS.

Residents of Arroyo Terrace will institute an innovation in the matter of sidewalks and when the Council convenes next week a petition will be presented asking that the sidewalks on their street be ordered made of brick instead of cement. As the petition is backed by nearly all of the property-holders interested there is no doubt but that it will be granted and within a short time handsome red brick footpaths will be constructed along the crest of the arroyo.

The reason for the desired change from the usual sidewalking material is the fact that the majority of the houses are built along architectural lines which do not entirely dovetail with the modern cement sidewalk. That the old-fashioned brick is far more artistic is generally admitted, and there is far less danger of cracking. The idea is meeting with favor and it is not unlikely that more brick sidewalks will follow this one when it is built.

GATES ARE ASSURED.

That the gates to protect traffic at the railroad crossings will soon be installed is now assured and the many accidents which have taken place within the last couple of years will, it is hoped, soon be a thing of the past. The Council is determined to have ample protection afforded citizens and the Santa Fé company, whose tracks run through the heart of the city, has announced that it is in readiness to comply with the wishes of the administration.

After careful investigation it has been decided that flagmen will afford better protection at Union street and Green street than will gates, and man will be stationed at these crossings as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. The approach of the track at Union street is such as to make it impossible to see an on-coming train until it is within a few feet of the street.

MOTORCYCLES FOR POLICE.

There is a movement on foot to provide two motorcycles for the police force to assist in catching violators of the speed ordinance and it is altogether likely that the machines will be bought within the immediate future. It is almost impossible for the officers to apprehend the men who drive their automobiles at a rate of speed faster than the law allows, but with a motorcycle corps added to the regular force, far more can be accomplished.

In spite of the number of arrests that have been made of late it seems impossible to discourage the speeders and as but few of the violators are apprehended, it is realized that a different tack must be pursued. When the streets are dusty it is frequently impossible to distinguish the number on the back of the speeding car and often the policemen are unable to positively identify the violators when they are brought into court. With motorcycles it is thought that the speeders can be overhauled as a rule and placed under arrest on the spot.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. Meredith of No. 85 North Euclid avenue gave an elaborately appointed dinner party Tuesday at which covers were laid for Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raymond, Jr., and Mrs. McBride, Dr. and Mrs. Willis Baer, Prof. and Mrs. Bragdon, Mrs. Frances Swan, Mrs. Bellman of Toledo, and Miss Playter of Oakland.

Mrs. Holloway I. Stuart of No. 80 South Grand avenue was the hostess yesterday afternoon at an attractively appointed Valentine card party. Five hundred was the game for the afternoon and after the games buffet refreshments were served. This is the second in a series of entertainments which Mrs. Stuart will give during the season.

Tuesday evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sellers, of No. 41 Villa street, Miss Camille Compton of Boulder, Colo., was married to Oliver L. Sellers. Rev. A. W. Lamport performed the ceremony at which only the near relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers left after the ceremony for a brief trip to Long Beach and upon their return they will be at home at No. 41 Villa street.

At the meeting of the Shakespeare Club on Saturday the subject for the day will be "The Old South." Rev. Albert Thatcher Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and a native of Virginia, will speak upon the South. Others on the programme will be J. Benson Starr and Mrs. Ariana Sweet.

On Washington's Birthday the members of the Shakespeare Club are to give a "Colonial Reception" at the clubhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gilleland and their son, Percy, have moved into their new residence at No. 201 South Orange Grove avenue.

Mrs. C. A. Sharp and Miss Sharp of No. 1122 South Orange Grove avenue have issued invitations for a reception and musicale on February 19.

FRONTIER JUSTICE PASSES.

Veteran of Two Wars Dies at the Soldiers' Home—Father of Noted Sons.

SOLDIERS' HOME, Feb. 13.—"Old Judge" Earp, frontier justice and father of the noted "Earp boys," who have figured prominently in the Southwest, and especially in Arizona and New Mexico, died in the Home hospital yesterday.

Nicholas P. Earp, who was a native of Kentucky, served during the Mexican War as sergeant in Capt. W. B. Steppe's company of Illinois Mounted Volunteers. At the close of the war he settled in Iowa and was elected justice of the peace in the then not over-populous Marion county.

When the Civil War was begun, he, at the request of the Governor of Iowa, organized troops in his county, and was appointed deputy United States provost-marshal for his Congress district; doing excellent service while in that office.

After the war he removed with his family to the Southwest and lived for a number of years in Arizona and New Mexico, and thence to Colton, where he again filled the office of justice of the peace. His health failing him, he, in 1907, came to the home where he was esteemed as an exemplary member by his associates, both in barrack and later in the hospital.

One son, James Earp, lives in Sawtelle, near the home. Another son, Nathan, is in the Searchlight mining district.

ALONG THE PICKET LINE.

Lincoln Day was observed with special exercises here yesterday. The reveille found flags fluttering from every corner of the barracks. In the evening Memorial Hall was comfortably filled by veterans and their friends, and an address was delivered by Rev. Dr. J. W. Strong of Carleton, Iowa.

The first sacre concert here, which took place in the home chapel, Sunday, more than fulfilled expectations. Not only was the chapel filled to its utmost, but many were turned away. Credit is due to those who assisted the regular choir in its first effort in this direction. Among those were Mrs. Lillian Feldman, soprano, of Corona; Miss Alma E. Gunning, contralto, of Venice; Dr. J. G. Crandall, tenor, of Los Angeles, and F. W. Seager, baritone, of Sawtelle.

Thomas A. Nelson, late Co. F, Sixth Iowa Infantry, a native of Indiana, admitted from Los Angeles, in 1901, died February 11, aged 72.

STUDIO RECEPTION.

Miss Wakeman Marks Opening of Handsome Building by Entertaining Hollywood Society.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 13.—The Current Events Club, the most exclusive organization in the city, was entertained last evening by Miss Jean Wakeman in her new music studio, the occasion marking the formal opening of this handsome structure.

The programme of the evening was varied and included an artistic grouping of musical numbers and a humorous address on music by E. D. Taylor. Jay Plowe, the flutist, played several selections, and Miss Wakeman and Mr. Plowe were heard in a duet. Miss Wakeman also gave two piano solos and Mrs. Webber gave violin selections. Following the programme, the guests were invited to assemble in the large drawing-rooms of the Wakeman home to partake of refreshments.

Assisting Miss Wakeman were Mrs. E. B. Wakeman, Mrs. McJohnston and Mrs. E. B. Mapel. There were about sixty present.

HOLLYWOOD NOTES.

Stanton W.R.C. of Los Angeles presented the Union High School with a large flag yesterday, appropriate ceremonies being held in the school auditorium and later on the grounds, where the flag was raised.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Hollywood, Prospect Park, East Hollywood and Ivanhoe, including members of the Sunset Boulevard and Cahuenga Valley Improvement associations, will be held on the evening of February 26, in Wilcox Hall, for the discussion of good roads.

POMONA SALES.

POMONA, Feb. 13.—Work was commenced today upon the four store buildings of brick covered with plaster, being erected by Mrs. Margaret Fleming at the corner of Garey avenue and Bertie street. All of the rooms have been leased. These are the first stores to be built north of the railroad track.

Dr. George M. Fox has sold to Luman Ruitty, through J. A. Fitch, the ten-acre orange grove with house and outbuildings, at Alexander and San Bernardino avenues, for about $9000, including part of the crop.

Rev. H. L. Hoyt has sold to Miss Rose Ward, through E. E. Gillen & Co., a four-acre orange grove near Claremont; consideration named, $3100.

Dr. E. H. Morrison has been compelled to give up his dental practice for an indefinite period on account of the serious condition of his eyes. He will spend the next few months out of doors in Northern California.

The Salt Lake Overland struck and killed Aaron Mullendorf, aged 52, a mile west of Lemon today. The old gentleman was deaf and was walking along the track. He lived with a daughter, Mrs. William McClintock, at Lemon.

FRONTAGE FOR SEASHORE CITY.

LONG BEACH COMPROMISES FOR TERMINAL STREETS.

Town Thereby Gets Three Public Landings and Also the Control of Six Hundred Feet of the Shore. Mystery of Stranger Taking Tide Measurements at Seaside Park.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 13.—As the result of a compromise between the citizens of West Long Beach and the Salt Lake Railroad the City Trustees today agreed to adopt a resolution closing the streets at West Long Beach (Terminal Island,) extending from Railroad avenue north to Harbor avenue, and adopted a second resolution opening Fourth and Eighth streets, with an understanding that a third street shall be opened between the two by the Blinn Lumber Company, through whose property it will extend from the ocean to the navigable waters of the bay.

The board by hinting at condemnation proceedings, practically forced the Salt Lake to the concessions it has made, for that road claims nearly all the property involved and in fact does hold tax title to much of it. The result of these negotiations gives the city three public landings and control of 600 feet of water frontage.

WATCH TIDE MEASURER.

For the past thirty days residents at Seaside Park have been puzzled over the daily visitations of a stranger who strolled out on the pier and after remaining a few moments would leave. Yesterday it was found that he was taking measurements of the tide with a water gauge, and following this up, the stranger was identified as a brakeman on the Salt Lake, who has been stationed at Las Vegas. It is supposed that the measurements are being taken for the purpose of combating the order of the War Department to open the mouth of San Gabriel River, remove the Salt Lake trestle and construct a drawbridge.

SEASHORE NEWS POINTS.

H. S. Carver's launch Margarita is to glide over the ways and into the briny on Saturday at 1 p.m. at the yards of the Western Boat Works at the foot of Riverside Drive. It is built especially for shallow water and is designed for service in the inner harbor route between Long Beach and San Pedro. She is forty feet long, ten feet beam and draws eighteen inches of water. The boat has a seating capacity for sixty people. She is equipped with a twenty-five-horse power engine.

The electric motor for the new dredger of the North American Dredging Company, now building at San Francisco, for Inland harbor work, arrived here yesterday. It weight fourteen tons and when installed will give the dredger a capacity of 200,000 cubic feet a month.

On Saturday afternoon the directors of the Wilmington Dock Company will decide whether to let the contract for dredging the channel for which they were granted permission by the War Department yesterday, or do it themselves. Work will begin next week on the preliminary bores and surveys along the proposed route. Two-thirds of the channel to be dredged lies within the city limits of Long Beach and if the second Wilmington incorporation is invalid, the entire channel is in Long Beach territory.

Jonathan Bixby, in whose honor Alamitos Park was renamed by the City Trustees last week, has requested that the name Jonathan be eliminated and that the park be known simply as Bixby Park. The request will be considered at a future meeting of the board.

At a regular meeting of the vestry of St. Luke's Episcopal Church last night, a call was extended to Rev. Robert B. Gooden of Escondido. St. Luke's has been without a rector for several months.

J. W. Richards died last night after an illness of several weeks. He was born at Sherman, N. Y., in 1847 and came to Long Beach nine years ago. A widow and one son are left.

A controller box on a Redondo-avenue car caught fire today, causing a wild exodus of passengers from the coach.

Richard Coon, a pressman, employed at to Press office, had his overalls caught in cog wheels and was being drawn into the machine today when Andrew Hickey, an apprentice, seized a lever and stopped the press. Coon narrowly missed severe injury. The cogs were stripped from the wheels.

SALES AT GLENDORA.

GLENDORA, Feb. 13.—R. J. Laidlaw has sold his fine twenty-acre orange ranch, improved, close in, set solid to sixteen-year-old navel and Valencia trees, to S. S. Peters of Whittier; consideration named, $30,000. Mr. Laidlaw purchased this orchard about a year ago for $25,000, and sold $4000 worth of fruit from it.

Oscar Matthias has sold his thirteen-acre ranch, improved, close in, and set to berries, to H. Frasier; consideration named, $2500.

J. J. and E. West have sold a five-acre tract adjoining the townsite, about midway on the east side, to B. F. Taylor of Pasadena; consideration stated, $5000. This fine tract will be subdivided and the streets graded and curbed and sidewalks will be laid.

MONROVIA.

MONROVIA, Feb. 13.—Monrovia is not only in favor of voting all the bonds necessary for road improvement in the county, but is also very desirous of seeing that J. H. McClymonds is made the engineer of the project.

The library association has made arrangements with Mrs. Greenleaf for a series of lectures, the proceeds to go toward furnishing the new library building. For the ornamentation of the grounds many citizens are contributing trees and shrubbery.

When Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cronenwett returned from their trip to San Diego they discovered that a burglar had relieved their home of several hundred dollars worth of valuables.

Charles Rehrman, Monrovia's pioneer baker, has sold his establishment to J. H. Meyers and R. Stark of Azusa.

FREE to Men

Ask us to send you sealed, free, a book just completed, which will inspire any man to be bigger, stronger, younger (if he is old), and more manly than he ever felt. We are builders of men.
We can take any weak, puny man and make him feel like a Sandow. Of course, we can't make a Hercules of a man who was never intended by nature to be strong and husky. We don't mean that.
But we can take a man who started with a fair constitution and before it got fully developed began tearing it down. That fellow is weak-nerved, slow, poky, lacking in vim, ambition and self-confidence. We can make a man of him in three months so that his own friends won't know him.
We want you to read this book and learn the truth about our arguments. If you are not as vigorous as you would like to be, if you have rheumatic pains, weak kidneys, loss of vitality, prostatic troubles, nervous spells, or any ailment of that kind that unmans you, it would assure your future happiness if you would look into this method of ours. [SPECIAL TO THE TIMES.]

ANA, Feb. 13.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Huntington and Huntington Beach will be out-vote today and the result, after four hours of counting, made it look as if the vote was lighted. Certain it is that the relations of the two towns are not the same as they have been for a long time. On the question of importance to both of the South Ana River there is a pronounced difference of opinion, the vote resulting in a demanding vote for the company to be granted. SUES FOR INTEREST.

J. R. Newberry Begins Action Against His San Bernardino Partners.

Good Roads Matter.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 13.—J. R. Newberry this morning commenced suit against his business partners here, F. S. and E. F. Youngers, to recover principal and interest on a promissory note dated at Los Angeles, February 20, of last year, interest on which is alleged to be long overdue.

Some months ago the grocery interests were stirred by the announcement of cut prices which Newberry & Younger were offering. As a rule the prices quoted were far below cost.

The sale was suddenly terminated. The incident gave rise to ill feeling between the partners, it is said, and rumor had it that Newberry would close the store to get the Youngers out. This was denied by the Youngers.

FINDS CITY CAN BOND.

The legal committee appointed to inquire into the status of this city with respect to a bond issue for good roads has reported to the Board of Trade that the city has a right to bond to the sum of $112,325, and that after the payments of the indebtedness, April 1, will increase its limit to $118,000.

News was received here today of the death at Los Angeles this morning of James A. Devore, president of the Kenwood Commercial Company of Chicago, which owns Devore and Kenwood Heights in the Cajon Pass region. The remains will be taken to Chicago for interment.

Tramps broke into the residence of Mrs. Rinehearst Monday night and cooked themselves a meal, while the family slept. They attempted to repeat the performance last night, and were discovered, but escaped.

Attend tennis tournament at Coronado.

REDLANDS CHARITIES.

REDLANDS, Feb. 13.—The annual meeting of the Associated Charities was held this morning in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mary C. Curtis; first vice-president, M. A. Hollabaugh; second vice-president, Rev. Maxwell Savage; secretary, Miss Edith A. Hale; treasurer, Miss Irene M. Hornby; directors, Mrs. Eliza M. Payton, Mrs. Jean D. Barker, Mrs. Louisa Mason, Mrs. Helen R. Scott, Halsey W. Allen, J. B. Glover, Rev. A. W. Palmer and the foregoing officers.

George P. Stone today purchased from A. Gregory forty acres on Alabama street, outside the city limits. The entire ranch is set to oranges, Washington navels and late Valencias. The price paid was $16,000. The trees are less than a year old.

At the monthly all-day meeting of the Women's Societies of the First Methodist Episcopal Church held today, there was an address delivered by Mrs. R. H. Young, secretary of the International Missionary Bureau for Alaska.

An unsuccessful attempt to burglarize the home of W. H. Pettibone on West Fern avenue, was made Sunday evening.

ONTARIO.

ONTARIO, Feb. 13.—Rev. R. H. Gushee, rector of Christ Episcopal Church returned yesterday. He has been holding an eight-day mission in San Diego. Rev. Russell J. Wilbur, who was in charge during his absence, has gone to San Francisco.

Alexander J. Whiting, a former resident of this place, who died in Riverside last week, was buried yesterday afternoon.

At the Current Events Club meeting tomorrow in the Masonic Hall, a paper from the reciprocity bureau will be read by Mrs. C. W. Burt. Current events will be discussed by Mrs. Florence Porter of South Pasadena.

ORANGE.

ORANGE, Feb. 13.—A. B. Tiffany has been appointed by the Supervisors as custodian of the beautiful county park in the Santiago Canyon.

The ladies of the Relief Corps gave a very pleasant social yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hemphill.

meet their obligations. The big company was taxed beyond its resources. As a result, the announcement has just been made that the whole outfit has been acquired by interests not unfriendly to Bell.

Right on the heels of this collapse comes the granting of franchises for competing telephones in Omaha and Denver. At both of these places the Bell companies have had a monopoly fostered by providing enormous development and high grade service. At each place the Bell telephone plant is of the most modern construction, and the service the best the world affords. In the face of this state of affairs, and after several years of agitation, there comes the ubiquitous promoter seeking his promoter's profit. In order to get a foothold, he had to offer bedrock rates, rates based on the low prices of telephone material which prevailed two or three years ago, and not based at all on present prices.

The promoters in both cities, now that they have secured their franchises, find themselves in a peculiar and embarrassing situation. They promised cheap telephones; they agreed to give better service than the Bell people supplied, for less money. They might, perhaps, have been able to do this at the time they started the agitation, although that is extremely doubtful, but with the increased cost of practically every commodity used in telephone construction, it is manifestly impossible. It is a fact admitted by telephone men, both of the Bell and independent affiliation, that the cost of outfitting a plant is between 40 and 60 per cent. greater than it was three or four years ago. With copper at 26 cents and lead, iron, tin, lumber and other materials showing a proportionate increase, this appears reasonable.

It would be possible, of course, to equip the company with cheap materials—for example, iron wire might be used in place of copper—but this would be a short-sighted policy, and with such equipment first-class service, such as the people were promised, would be out of the question. Facing this state of affairs, the promoter sees that he must either desert the ship or sail her to foreign waters. All efforts to dispose of the underwritings in Denver and Omaha, where the true conditions are known, have failed. Yet, if they be not sold, wherein will there be profit for the promoter? Hence the opportunity offered to Los Angeles capital.

"The fact is that the people are coming to understand how foolish a thing is telephone competition," the telephone man above quoted remarked in conclusion. "In the face of the Bell company's hold on the general situation, and its aggressive spirit, comparatively few independent corporations have been able to flourish, and it is likely that fewer will prosper as time passes and the people come more and more to realize that their remedy lies not in competition."

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, commonly referred to as a trust, cannot properly be considered as such, because, while its ramifications include practically the whole country, it is not in league with other corporations doing similar business, and it does not enjoy a monopoly of the telephone business, or anything approaching one. In a special report of the United States Census Bureau (1902) the Bell interests are credited with only 50 per cent. of the business of the country. Manifestly, this is no monopoly. Indeed, there is no more real competition than telephone competition. This competition, however, instead of proving a boon, has proved a nuisance.

It is readily possible to conceive, from the trend of affairs, a telephone trust in the true sense of the word. But in the event that the Bell interests, for example, should control absolutely every telephone line in the country, the people would have redress through law for any abuse, since the courts have held that telephone companies are quasi-public corporations. As the situation is coming more and more to be understood by the public, it is becoming increasingly evident that the smaller concerns can best serve the public by cooperating with the larger companies whose lines cover every section of the territory.

I Cure the Cases that Others Cannot Cure

The way to learn whether your case is curable is to consult me. I know exactly what can be done in every instance. I ought to know this, for I have done nothing else other than treat men's diseases for twenty-five years. If your case is curable I will treat you. If it isn't, I will not. If I treat you, and you so desire,

I Will Wait for My Fee Until You are Well

DR. TAYLOR,
The Leading Specialist.

Contracted Disorders

In no other ailment peculiar to men is a prompt and thorough cure so essential. Contracted disorders tend to work backward until the most vital nerve centers become involved in the inflammation. Then follows a chronic stage that stubbornly resists an ordinary treatment. Safety demands that every vestige of infection be eradicated at the earliest possible moment. My treatment is thorough. The remedies employed have a more positive action than has ever before been attained, and so perfect is my method of application that even chronic cases yield completely.

Varicocele

This most prevalent of all diseases of men is also the most neglected, either through dread of the harsh methods of treatment commonly employed, or through ignorance of the grave dangers that accompany the disease. As varicocele interferes directly with the circulation and process of waste and repair throughout the generative organs, the necessity of a prompt and thorough cure cannot be too forcibly emphasized. I cure varicocele in one week by an absolutely painless process. My cures are permanent, and are accomplished without the use of knife, ligature or caustic.

I also cure to stay cured "Weakness," Hydrocele, Specific Blood Poison and all Men's Diseases. CONSULTATION AND ADVICE FREE.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Feb. 13.—[Reported by A. H. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.08; at 5 p.m., 30.10. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 62 deg. and 74 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 47 per cent.; 5 p.m., 43 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 6 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 4 miles. Maximum temperature, 76 deg.; minimum, 46 deg.

Weather Conditions.—Unusually dry weather continues throughout the United States this morning, the only stations reporting precipitation being Buffalo, N. Y., and Tampa, Week. Low temperatures continue in the Middle Atlantic and the New England States, although it is considerably warmer in those States than at the same hour Tuesday. Elsewhere the weather continues warmer than usual, the highest temperatures being reported on the South Pacific slope. The distribution of pressure over the western half of the country is favorable for a continuation of partly cloudy weather in Los Angeles and vicinity tonight and Thursday.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; variable winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—The pressure continues high over the Pacific slope. Cloudiness is increasing over the northern portion of the State. The pressure distribution favors cloudy weather Thursday, with northeast winds and low fog in the morning in the great valleys and along the coast. Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy Thursday; fresh east wind.

San Joaquin Valley: Cloudy Thursday, with fog in the morning; light north wind.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Thursday; light northeast wind.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

There was little interest in fruit or produce yesterday morning. Sales were of good volume and prices were fairly well maintained. In the butter market the undertone was weak and local creamery stock were accumulating in some quarters. Receipts of butter yesterday were only 5000 pounds.

Ranch eggs were inclined to be steady to firm. There was no change in egg prices. The warm weather is increasing the supply of local ranch, and may have a tendency to force prices lower in a few days. Egg dealers were quoting local offerings at from 24 to 25 cents. The San Francisco egg market went to pieces when the price of local ranch dropped to 23½ cents a dozen. Evidently the dealers there have felt the influence from the recent wild fluctuations of this market.

Sales on change—Five cases of black Swiss domestic cheese; 10 cases of local ranch case count eggs; 1 carload of Idaho cheese; 10 cases of northern case count eggs.

Lettuce brought 1.25@1.75 crate. Cauliflower is firm at 1.00@2.00 per crate.

Halibut glutted the market yesterday and fish dealers have notified coast fishermen to stop shipping for a few days. On fish dealer put over ten tons of halibut in storage yesterday. Lobsters were plentiful. Fish jobbers state that there is no truth in the report that the fish in this market is being controlled by a fish trust. Ham and lard are firmer.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 491 cases; butter, 5234 lbs.; cheese, 2855 lbs.; potatoes, 1418 sacks; onions, 865 sacks; beans, 210 sacks; sweet potatoes, none.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKETS.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—The wheat market today opened weak on active selling by local and outside longs. A sharp decline was reported from Liverpool, and Northwestern receipts were more liberal. May opened 2-3 to 5-8 lower, at 79 1-4 to 79 7-8 and held for a time within that range. The market was also affected somewhat by increased receipts in the Northwest and toward the middle of the day the market rallied on an active demand by commission houses. The rally, however, was short lived. During the last hour there was free selling by commission houses caused by the report that receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth are likely to increase during the remainder of this month. The market closed weak with prices close to the lowest, with May off 1 1-2@1 1-4. May opened 2-3@5-8 lower at 79 1-4 to 79 7-8, sold up to 80 1-8 and closed at 79@ 79 1-8. Sentiment in the corn pit was bearish for the greater part of the day, but a good demand by elevator concerns prevented any material decline in prices. Commission houses were the principal sellers. The market closed 1-8 off with May at 61¼@61 5-8 after opening at 61¾. Trading in oats was very quiet and the market was inclined to be weak. May opened quarter to 3-8 lower at 40 3-4 to 40¾, sold up to 40 3-4 and closed down 1-8 at 40 5-8. Provisions were weak despite a 5@10 advance in the price of live hogs. At the close May pork was down 35, lard was down 17½, and ribs were 12 lower.

Liverpool Cotton Market

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 12.—Liverpool spot cotton 2 points lower at 6@6 for American middling; on sales of 10,000 bales, including 9000 American. Imports, 6000, all American. It is impossible to give an early import estimate, on account of absence of New Orleans and Galveston estimates. The South Carolina House has passed a bill limiting hours of labor in cotton mills to ten hours per day.

Liverpool was open yesterday, but showed no special activity. January cotton exports were valued at $22,550,000, an increase of $2,900,000 over the same month last year. Number bales exported, 1,270,000, against 647,000 same month last year.

Liverpool closed firm, 5½ to 6 points higher.

New York Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Tin in London declined 3s, with spot quoted at £191, 15s, and futures at £191. Locally the market was easy with spot quoted at 41.12½@41.31½. Copper was higher in the London market with spot advanced at £106 and futures at £103. Locally the market firm, with lake at 25.00@25.25, electrolytic at 24.75@25.00 and casting at 24.50@ 24.75. Lead was unchanged at £15, 10s in London, and at 6.60@6.65 locally. Spelter was firm and a shade higher locally at 6.70@6.80. London market higher at £25, 5s. 6d. Iron unchanged in the English market, with Standard foundry quoted at 58s, and Cleveland warrants at 56s, 9d. Local market unchanged.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

[Exclusive service to The Times by the Los Angeles Stock Brokerage Company, Ground floor Citizens' National Bank Building. Quotations guaranteed by the Western Union Telegraph Company.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—There was somewhat of an improvement in the mining market today, especially in the Goldfields. This stimulation was mainly caused by the report of a strike in the Combination Fraction; while that near the Mohawk engine, and was reported to be rolling as high as 2 in Goldfield. The exchange here was flooded with buying orders for this stock all morning and it closed strong at $2.75 bid, which was an advance of 50 points over yesterday's close. Silver Pick, Goldfield Consolidated and St. Ives closed strong, with Daisy selling as high as $1.30. There are also rumors of a strike on the Gold Bar, in a ledge of two to four-inch ore.

Present indications are for a much stronger market in the near future. Following are the closing quotations on the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board, together with the regular call sales:

BABY'S FACE IN TERRIBLE STATE

Awful Humor Was Eating Away Face and Ears—Body Mass of Sores—Three Doctors Tried to Help Little Sufferer But She Grew Worse—After Spending Many Dollars On Doctors and Medicine

CUTICURA CURES IN TWO WEEKS AT COST OF 75c.

"I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away. Her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever. Mrs. George J. Steese, 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, Aug. 30, 1905."

ITCHING TORTURES
Speedily Cured by Cuticura

A warm bath with Cuticura Soap and a single application of Cuticura Ointment, the great Skin Cure, will afford immediate relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure of the most distressing forms of torturing, disfiguring, humors, eczemas, tetters, rashes, itchings, and irritations of infants, children, and adults when all other remedies and even physicians fail.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap, (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60, to Purify the Blood.
